RAILROADS VOTE TO CUT UNION PAY ANOTHER 10 PCT.

Committee Decides to Serve Notice of 20 Pct. Reduction, Effective Feb. 1, for All Employees.

MUNICIPAL SLASH ALREADY IN FORCE

Not Expected to Be Final, as Series of Conferences Is Provided by U. S. Law.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—A committee of railway executives recommended today that notice be served all classes of railway employees a 20 per cent reduction in the rates of pay will be made effective next Feb. 1.

The brotherhood and union representatives voluntarily accepted a 10 per cent wage cut in February, effective for only one year. Under that agreement basic wages would be restored in 1933.

The railway men decided today, never to ask for no further wage cut but to serve plain notice that basic wages would be reduced 20 per cent. This will mean the permanent wage rate 10 per cent below the current rates, if they accepted.

The spokesman for the executive committee expected the notice to follow the whole route of the parleys called for by Federal law. The notices will be served on employees by the individual railroads and thereafter will follow the usual procedure of the national conference, hearings by the United States Board of Mediation and the final decision by an arbitration board.

The brief announcement made the adjournment of the three-day executive conference said: "The committee recommended to individual roads that notices be served on all classes of railway employees of the carriers' intention to reduce all basic rates of pay 20 per cent effective Feb. 1, 1933."

The conference committee agreed to carry out the decision of W. F. Thielhoff, general manager of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, as chairman, and the following regional managers: J. G. Walber, New York Central Lines; C. W. Gallagher, Baltimore & Ohio; H. A. Jones, Pennsylvania Railroad; W. J. Gluck, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; W. F. Thielhoff, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; E. J. Adams, Atlantic Coast Line; J. Jones, Norfolk & Western; Mackay, Southern Railway.

ANTILE PARALYSIS SHUTS SCHOOLS IN PHILADELPHIA

More Than 400 Ill and 40 Have Died in Worst Attack of Disease Since 1916.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—All schools in the Philadelphia area closed today because of an antile paralysis epidemic in which 46 persons have died. More than 400 are ill of the disease. The outbreak is the worst since 1916, when figures for the same disease were slightly higher. Pennsylvania now has more cases of the disease than any other state. The outbreak is concentrated within a few miles of the city. Vigorous methods of quarantine adopted by the Department of Public Health, together with the use of the most severe heat wave of the most severe heat wave years are thought to have ended the violent period of the epidemic. Only 10 new cases were reported yesterday. All assemblages of children less than 15 years old were forbidden by the Board of Health, including those in public, private and parochial schools.

Denver C. B. & Q. Cashier Given Only Few Weeks to Live by Physician.

By the Associated Press.
DENVER, Colo., Sept. 9.—Suffering from a disease which a physician said would cause his death within a few weeks, Harvey L. Carter, 42 years old, was sought by authorities today charged with taking $12,000 from the safe of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad ticket office where he has been cashier for the last five years.

Auditors reported that about $12,000 in cash and travelers' checks were missing. Carter was believed to have left Denver Sunday.

A travelers' check for $12 was cashed at a bus terminal here at that time, and officers believed Carter left on a bus, possibly in disguise. His clothing and personal effects were left behind in his room.

Homer G. Otterman, special agent for the Burlington, said it was hardly possible that Carter could long escape arrest.

"He is barely able to walk and his physicians said excessive activity would prove fatal," said Otterman.

Friends reported Carter had been talking for some time of traveling.

SON FINED AS SPEEDER DESPITE RICKY'S TEST

Pleads Guilty to Driving Automobile 45 Miles an Hour on Boulevard.

Branch Ricky Jr., 17-year-old son of the vice-president of the St. Louis National League Baseball club, was fined $5 and costs by Police Judge Blaine today when he pleaded guilty of driving 45 miles an hour on Lindell boulevard last week.

His father told the Court he drove 40 miles an hour over the same stretch, between Skinker road and De Baliviere avenue, on the way to court and that three machines passed him.

"I hope you will not make any more tests like that," Judge Blaine replied, "or you may find yourself down here."

WOMAN PLUNGES TO DEATH IN FALLS AT NIAGARA

Papers in Value Found on Brink Near Name of Mary McNaughton, Chicago.

By the Associated Press.
EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 9.—Three men were burned to death when an El Paso-Dallas passenger plane struck the side of one of the Guadalupe mountains, 75 miles east of here, early yesterday. They were Pilot W. J. (Bryant) Robbins, co-pilot, Francis W. Briggs, and Victor Ellman of St. Louis.

A fourth man in the ship, George A. Davidson of Richmond, Cal., was burned on the face and hands but was otherwise unhurt.

The wrecked plane was found early today by two American Airways pilots, Ira McConaughy and Victor Miller.

Davidson was found about two miles away. He had stopped to build a fire because he could not find his way well in the darkness and needed warmth against the chill air of the mountains.

Davidson said he was nervous as Robbins tried to drive the plane over the mountains in foggy weather. As a precaution, he said, he tightened his safety belt. When the plane hit the mountainside, the other three were thrown forward and probably stunned. Davidson's belt kept him in his seat and left him able to leap from the plane. The instant before it took fire. Almost in a moment, he said, the other men were enveloped in flames.

Unable to help them, he remained near the plane a while, then started to try to make his way out of the mountains. The plane struck about 150 feet below the crest of one mountain. If it had been flying slightly higher it might have gone on to Dallas safely. At the time of the crash it was only an hour out of El Paso.

After the plane had been some hours over, search for it was begun. When McConaughy and Miller finally sighted the wreckage, they had to fly 12 miles farther before finding a place to land. They made their way back toward the wreckage on foot.

Davidson, refinery department manager for the Standard Oil Co., remained at a ranch last night.

Robbins was a cousin of Reg L. Robbins, who won fame as an endurance flyer. Reg Robbins taught his cousin to fly several years ago and the two barnstormed together. Bryant Robbins had been a pilot for the American Airways since its beginning as the Texas Air Transport. He and Mrs. Robbins lived with her mother, Mrs. Henry Vaughn, at Everman. There is a son, Byron, 10 years old.

Briggs lived in Dallas.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—Victor Ellman, 35-year-old, killed in an airplane crash in Texas yesterday, was a violinist and actor. He played on many local radio programs and for motion picture sound effects. He also appeared in minor picture roles. His sister, Eve, is employed at R. K. BANK ROBBERS GET $20,000; EMPLOYEES, CUSTOMERS, TIED

Two Men Blind Five Persons With Rope at Danvers, Ia.; Escape With Cash.

By the Associated Press.
DANVERS, Ia., Sept. 9.—Two young men armed with revolvers walked into the Home Savings Bank here at noon today, tied two employees and three customers, escaped in an automobile with about $20,000 in cash.

Harold Hansen the cashier and A. E. Stollenberg were the only employees in the bank at the time. John Tetens of Des Moines, a customer, was standing at a window.

The robbers forced them to lie down, and bound their wrists and ankles with rope. Mrs. Elmer Burkholder of Des Moines entered and she was tied. W. S. McComb of Rock Island entered the bank and he was tied. One man guarded the prisoners while his companion forced Hansen to open the vault.

Wife Tells of Threats by Letters and Phone—Fears He Is Victim of Bootleggers.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Mrs. W. Requa Bryant, friend of Col. Raymond Robbins for 20 years, today said she saw the missing prohibition and peace worker on a Chicago street yesterday afternoon.

"I am positive the man was Mr. Robbins," she said. "I have known him since my childhood when he visited in our home. He appeared distraught and for that reason I didn't speak to him. I didn't know he was missing at that time."

Mrs. Bryant's father, Attorney Harold L. Ickes, said he had talked at length with his daughter and was convinced the man she saw was Robbins. Ickes was a lifelong friend of Robbins and they campaigned together for Theodore Roosevelt in 1912.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Anxiety over the whereabouts of Col. Raymond Robbins, prominent prohibitionist whose disappearance was disclosed by his failure to keep a White House appointment Tuesday, was heightened today by President Hoover's concern and fears of violence expressed by Mrs. Robbins.

Her statement in Maine that Robbins may have been kidnapped or killed by "Florida bootleggers" spurred official inquiries in both New York, where Robbins was last seen Saturday, and in Washington. Capital police, however, had no indication of his arrival here. Robbins had been active against liquor violators.

Dr. Fred B. Smith, a New York friend of the missing man, who also was a social economist, talked with the White House after Mrs. Robbins' statement and reported the President was "quite worried."

Calls Him "A Lone Wolf."

Personally, however, Smith said he felt Mrs. Robbins "may be over-anxious." She had told of many threats on her husband's life for his active work in behalf of constitutional prohibition and against liquor violators.

"Col. Robbins is a lone wolf," Smith said. "When he wants to learn something, to dig up something, it occurs to him to happen that he will go off without telling anyone and he goes it alone until he finds what he wants."

"Threats against his life never cease, him. He just laughs at them."

"But," he added, "of course, it does seem unusual that he should break an engagement with the President."

General Mitchell said today special investigators from the Prohibition Bureau had been assigned to the hunt for Col. Robbins on the theory that he might have been harmed by a gang of bootleggers. Mitchell reported, however, that nothing had been found that would substantiate such a theory or give a clue to any gang that might be responsible.

Robbins was last seen at the City Club in New York at a time fixed by employees at between 4:50 and 5:30 p. m. on Saturday. He had checked out, leaving the Dodge Hotel in Washington as a forward address. This hotel, however, said Robbins had made no reservation and had not been there. His baggage was located today in the City Club checkroom.

White House Anxiety.

Robbins' unexplained absence was first made known at the White House by Walter Newton, one of the President's secretaries. He said: "Robbins has been a warm personal friend of mine for 20 years and is a very close friend of the President. Last Friday I talked with him by telephone in New York and when I found he was coming to the capital on Tuesday, I made an engagement for him to talk with me."

"He did not appear on Tuesday or communicate with us. Yesterday I became concerned. By telephone inquiries I found out that he had checked out of the City Club in New York last Saturday afternoon and that they didn't know where he was except that he was forwarding address was the Dodge Hotel in Washington."

"I feared that he might have been taken sick or affected by the heat. Since that time we have been

36 KILLED AND 70 INJURED WHEN WORK BOAT BLOWS UP IN EAST RIVER, NEW YORK

WOMAN ON BOAT DISAPPEARS; CLEW IN BERN SUICIDE

Dorothy Millette Missing From River Steamer May Be Woman Named in Will.

INQUEST VERDICT EXPLAINS NOTHING

Jean Harlow Says He Sent Money to 'Old Friend,' but Knows Nothing of 'Other Woman.'

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Dorothy Millette, possibly the woman prominently named in the Paul Bern suicide, disappeared Tuesday night from a river steamer between here and Sacramento, leaving her luggage in her cabin. Police were told by F. J. Oliva Jr., of Oakland, ticket agent for the River Lines.

Whether this was the same "Dorothy Millette" named in the will of the dead motion picture executive as "my wife, Dorothy Millette," could not be definitely ascertained, but Oliva said the woman's name was signed with that name before she boarded the steamer.

The register of the Plaza Hotel here showed the signature of "D. Millette, New York City," among registrations for May 4, the hotel stating she left Sept. 6, the day after Bern's suicide in Beverly Hills.

The river steamer made one stop en route to Sacramento. Steamer line officials said they found no trace of Miss Millette on arrival at Sacramento Wednesday morning.

Miss Millette, it was said at the hotel, avoided all other guests. Miss Millette was described as of slight build, almost always dressed in blue, 38 or 40 years old, with brown hair and blue eyes. This description tallied closely with press descriptions of the woman with whom Bern was associated in New York.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—Authorities are looking for the "other woman" in the life of Paul Bern, movie executive and husband of Jean Harlow, actress, in the hope that she may throw some light on his suicide. Bern shot and killed himself in his home here Monday, leaving a note to "My dearest dear," which was "humorous" at the "frightful wrong" he had done her.

Investigators expressed belief that the woman was in Southern California and might have figured in events immediately preceding the suicide.

Miss D. Millette, whom the Los Angeles Examiner identifies as the "other woman," checked out of a San Francisco hotel Tuesday, the day after Bern's body was found. She had been registered at the hotel since May 4.

For years a woman known as Mrs. Paul Bern, the Miss D. Millette of New York, who had been staying in the San Francisco hotel, and the Dorothy Millette named in a will in 1929, are one and the same person. Police want to question her about Bern's death.

An inquest yesterday failed to disclose a motive for suicide, although several witnesses testified Bern was suffering from melancholia resulting from a physical condition.

Henry Bern, a brother, who had been in the city for some time, announced last night that "certain complications" caused him to continue his silence. "Please don't ask me what those complications are," he said. "I just say that when they have been straightened out I will tell all."

Prior to this, Henry Bern's attorney, Ralph Blum, had said: "We will be able to announce something definite concerning Paul Bern's previous marital status within 24 hours. We are beginning to investigate the reports that Paul Bern

ST. LOUIS TO USE STICKERS FOR AUTO LICENSES IN 1933

Paper Emblems to Be Put on Windshields, Will Replace Metal Tags.

Windshield stickers will be issued for city automobile licenses next year, instead of the metal tags of this and past years.

The Board of Standardization made this decision yesterday and decided to award the contract for the stickers to S. G. Adams Co., which agreed to furnish 155,000 at $30 a thousand, a total of $4,650. The stickers are about one-half inch cheaper than metal tags.

The design selected for 1933 is a yellow rectangle, two by four inches, letter in red and bearing the seal of the city, a steamboat in a circle. It will carry the facsimile signatures of License Collector Chapman, Comptroller Nolte and City Register Gross. The licenses will be numbered serially.

In deciding to adopt the stickers the Board had made a survey of the experiences of University City, Kansas City and Chicago, which are using them this year. It found that the number of municipal licenses issued in each case increased with the use of stickers, since they cannot be removed from windshields intact and changed from car to car. The Board of Standardization expects a sharp increase in the issuance of city licenses next year and more revenue.

120 HURLED INTO AIR AS BOILER EXPLODES

Wooden Steamer, Carrying Laborers to Build Prison Cells on Riker's Island, Is Wrecked Just After Leaving Dock.

MANY MISSING, VESSEL IN BITS

Nearby Craft Speed to Rescue and Police Take Charge of Relief Activity Near the Scene of Slocum Disaster.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—An old wooden steamer exploded in the East River near Hell Gate today and more than 120 iron workers on their way to build prison cells in the $9,000,000 penitentiary under construction on Riker's Island, were thrown into the air, many dead and virtually all the rest injured.

Twenty-four bodies were taken during the morning to the ferry house where 28 years ago the dead of the Slocum disaster, in which more than 1000 persons were killed, were laid.

The toll late today as divers and rescue squads still sought bodies of victims, stood at 36 dead, 70 injured and at least 20 missing.

It was feared by police on the scene that the final death toll might reach 100. Among those unreported but considered surely dead by his associates, was Harry Hires of Mattawan, the boat's engineer, who was in the engine room when the boiler exploded and the craft was torn apart.

Pilot Gravely Injured.

The boat was the Observation, a 92-footer built 44 years ago and always owned by the Forsythe Transportation Co. Alexander Forsythe, the pilot, was gravely injured in the explosion and his father, George Forsythe, the captain, suffered fatal injuries.

Until recent years the Observation was always an excursion boat and until it was returned to this type of service every week-end, filling in the week as a labor ferry. Caught in a strong tide last winter, the boat was damaged and was raised and reconstructed in April and raised its annual Government examination. Forsythe said in the hospital that the Observation was captured while on a trip from Kearney, N. J., to Twin Bridge. The steamboat inspection service had previously said it sank at its Kearney dock.

Investigations were begun today by various agencies, including the police, the District Attorney's office and the steamboat inspection service of the Department of Commerce. Alexander Forsythe is under police guard as a material witness.

Boat "Blown to Smithereens."

The Observation was about 25 feet from the dock when there was a terrific rear. The boat disappeared in a cloud of smoke. Bodies, splinters of wood and iron were catapulted high in the air. When the smoke cleared there was nothing left of the boat but debris floating on the oily water.

Police, coast guard and commercial boats speeded to the scene to rescue the injured and transport the dead to shore.

One body was hurled 500 feet, when the steam cleared the city surface of the water was dotted with struggling figures, motionless figures, others clinging to splintered timbers and shouting feebly for help.

A piece of the shattered pilot house was floating far out in the stream.

Hours later a strong tide swept in onto the beach at Long Island City, miles away. Long pairs of

HOOVER AIDS SEEK TO BLOCK LEGION VOTE OF CENSURE

Hurley Flying to Portland, Ore., Convention to Try to Sidetrack Bonus Army Resolution.

NO FIGHT THIS YEAR ON COMPENSATION

Administration to Make No Effort to Prevent Indorsement of Immediate Cash Payments.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 201-5 Kellogg Bldg.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Flying in a commercial airplane to emphasize the suggestion that the administration was not interested in his mission, Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley left Washington early today for the American Legion convention at Portland, Ore., where he will try to block a vote of censure of President Hoover's use of Federal troops to evict the Bonus Army from Washington on July 23. Usually Hurley flies in Army planes, even on political speaking trips.

Hurley repeatedly has asserted that he will attend the Legion meeting as a Legionnaire and not in his capacity of Secretary of War and administration spokesman. He will be joined in Portland by Representative Royal Johnson (Rep., South Dakota), and Sanford MacNider, former National Commander of the Legion, who recently resigned as Minister of Canada, reportedly to help line up the veteran vote for President Hoover. Johnson, who was Minister of Canada, reportedly stated that he will attend the convention merely as a Legionnaire and not as administration spokesman.

The strategy of the administration's efforts to block the vote of censure was worked out yesterday at an hour's conference between President Hoover and Secretary of War Hurley. It was decided that the administration group would make no determined effort to stop the passage of a resolution calling for immediate payment of the bonus.

Indorsement to Demand Bonus.

Approximately 1200 of the 1400 delegates have been instructed by departmental conventions to demand immediate payment of the adjusted service certificates which do not mature until 1945. President Hoover appeared last year before the convention at Detroit to urge the defeat of a similar resolution. From that time on, he has insisted that the President's appearance was unnecessary because the leaders had already blocked the movement. There is no doubt, however, that the forceful evictions of the bonus army and the attendant harshness of the regular troops played directly into the hands of those seeking immediate cash for the certificates.

With the election less than two months away, administration leaders intimate that the bonus payment is an economic question. They are now interested in the political consequences of a vote of censure by an organization representing almost a million men, which heretofore has been one of the most vociferous groups in demanding harsh treatment of all who dared question the present economic system.

Five state conventions of the Legion—in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas and Maryland—already have voted resolutions of criticism of the use of Federal troops against the bonus army. At other conventions similar resolutions were proposed and only narrowly beaten. Several individual persons have voted direct criticism of Secretary Hurley and Gen. McArthur, chief of staff, who personally led the evictions.

Hurley May Talk Floor.

At Portland, Secretary Hurley, MacNider and Johnson hope to smother all evictions of criticism in the Resolutions Committee. If the committee cannot be managed or if resolutions of criticism are proposed from the floor, Hurley may address the convention, either as a fellow Legionnaire or as an administration spokesman. He has told friends that he would not carry a prepared speech to Portland.

Hurley has intimated to friends that he has no reliance for his present job. His assistant, P. Trubee Davidson, was seated and bowed at the New York Legion convention when he attempted to defend the administration's action by charging that the terms of the bonus army were "a polyglot mob of tramps and hoodlums, with a generous sprinkling of Communist agitators."

Hurley has come in for considerable criticism for his utterances, particularly for his statements that the bonus marchers had been humanely treated; that not one had been injured by the troops; and that their huts had not been fired on by the soldiers.

Hurley did not witness the evictions and his statements were demonstrably false.

Newspaper men, photographers, doctors and other observers of the evictions flatly contradicted the Secretary's declarations.

At Portland, Hurley will be confronted by W. W. Waters, commander of the bonus marchers. Portland is also the home of a large contingent of former service men who were routed from Camp Marks on the Anacostia Flats. Waters can get on the convention platform only by unanimous consent. When he was at the New York convention as a spectator there was a loud demand that he answer Assistant Secretary Davidson but he did not take the platform. Since then he has been touring the country, denouncing the actions of Washington officials, particularly Secretary Hurley.

Bonus Marchers Had Rifles in Camp, One of Them Tells Police.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Police officials said today that William E. Manning, Negro World War veteran who was one of the bonus marchers, had made a written statement to Police Inspector O. T. Davis that 30 rifles and a large box of ammunition were kept in the main bonus camp.

The statement was turned over to Nugent Dodge, Assistant Attorney-General, who has directed the investigation of plots attending the ousting of bonus marchers from the city late in July. Manning testified today before the District of Columbia grand jury.

Before appearing to give his testimony, however, officers took the man to the Anacostia Flats where the biggest encampment had been pitched. There he indicated a spot where he said one of the guns was hidden. A German Mauser rifle with its stock partly burned away and several shells were dug up. The camp was destroyed by fire when troops cleared it of veterans.

Manning's statement related, officials said, that he came to Washington from Portland, Ore., in the original bonus contingent, and that the rifles, which he first saw on July 18, were kept in camp by the California brigade until the evacuation.

Confined to bed at her mother's home as a result of shock, the actress was accused from appearing at the inquest.

Coroner's jurors found specifically that Bern "died from a gunshot wound which was self-inflicted with intent; motive undetermined."

Private funeral services will be held this afternoon at Ingwood Cemetery.

37 KILLED WHEN WORK BOAT BLOWS UP IN EAST RIVER

hands clutched its jagged edges in the grip of death.

As Capt. Forsythe of the Observer was pulled from the water, he was found to be unconscious. Priests went to the ferry house and knelt among the injured administering last rites to the dying.

Capt. Joseph Rogers of the municipal ferry Greenwich Village gave an eye-witness account.

"I heard a blast and saw the boat blown to smithereens," he said. "When the clouds of smoke and steam had cleared away we could see the passengers struggling in the water over a large area. Our ferryboat was in its slip at East 134th street at the time, just two blocks from the pier where the Observer had backed out into the water."

"We lowered our lifeboats and cruised about among the wreckage. We picked up four bodies and 10 injured persons. Other people were putting out in small boats and they also picked up bodies and the injured."

William Donoghue, 38 years old, of Long Island, one of the survivors, said:

"When the boat exploded I went high in the air and then sank deep into the water. When I came up again I was hit by a body coming down and went down for the second time. On coming up again I could hear the hiss of live steam and saw fragments of the boat floating all around me. I had sufficient presence of mind to swim under the water until I was sure there was no further danger."

G. Wallenstein, 51, of Yonkers, said:

"I was sitting on the top deck with six of my companions after the boat had backed out. Suddenly there was a terrific explosion and we were all hit by a body coming down and went down for the second time. On coming up again I could hear the hiss of live steam and saw fragments of the boat floating all around me. I had sufficient presence of mind to swim under the water until I was sure there was no further danger."

When the explosion occurred the body of one workman was thrown 50 feet into the air and landed on the roof of a building near the water front. Another body was hurled a similar distance to the roof of a building of the New York Edison Co.

Peter Collins, a life guard at the summer camp, was near the pier and saw the explosion. He called workers from a nearby power house and returned to the water front to give aid.

Today was the workers' regular weekly pay day and many had reported for duty early.

One diver was sent to the scene by the city Department of Docks and two more by the Brooklyn navy yard.

More than three hours after the explosion police said investigation indicated there were 185 men on the Observer when the boilers exploded.

It was the worst river tragedy here since 1926, when 58 men were drowned as a work launch was crushed in the ice-choked Hudson. The launch was the Linsend King, and it was carrying a load of newly employed men to their first day's work in New Jersey. Ice floes broke the little boat to bits, and they drowned or were ground to death.

INQUEST DELAYED IN 'THIRD DEGREE' KILLING IN JAIL

Chemist's Report in Case of Martin Virant Found Hanged at Pekin, Ill., Ready Tomorrow.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

PEKIN, Ill., Sept. 9.—An inquest in the death of Martin Virant, unemployed coal miner, who was found hanged in his cell in the county jail here, probably will be held tomorrow, it was announced today by Dr. A. E. Allen, Tazewell County Coroner.

Dr. Allen's announcement was made after Dr. W. D. McNally, Chicago pathologist, who was called in the Virant case, said that his formal report would be mailed to Dr. Allen late today.

It was upon Dr. McNally's preliminary oral report that Dr. Allen and State's Attorney Louis P. Dunkelberg swore out a warrant charging Deputy Sheriff C. O. Skinner with the murder of Virant. Dr. McNally said that he had examined the body of Virant, who was found hanging by his belt from his cell ceiling, had not died of strangulation.

State's Attorney Dunkelberg then recalled that a Deputy Sheriff had telephoned him before Virant was found dead and had asked whether he would be justified in administering "knockout drops" to the prisoner in order to subdue him so that his finger prints might be taken. Dunkelberg said he told the deputy he would not be justified in doing so.

Virant, as has been told, was held as a suspect in the murder of Lewis Nelson of East Peoria in a speakeasy brawl, Aug. 27. The principal evidence against him was the word of a witness of the Nelson killing, that Virant was present. Virant denied this and at the Nelson inquest, accused Skinner and other deputy sheriffs, whom he said he could not name, of beating him. He was taken back to jail and was found dead in his cell 18 hours later.

Dr. McNally said today, the stomach and contents showed no traces of poison but said he would not complete the examination until the end of next week.

Skinner, who was arrested on the murder warrant Tuesday evening, was released on $20,000 bond yesterday. His attorneys waived preliminary hearing. On advice of counsel, he declined to discuss the murder charge.

Dr. Allen, who with Dunkelberg conducted a secret investigation last night, said they found no other important evidence but nothing we can talk about now."

NEW MEXICO GOVERNOR'S SON GETS FIVE-YEAR TERM

Fined $10,000 Also for Violating National Banking Law on His Plea of Guilty.

By the Associated Press.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 9.—Otis Seligman, son of Gov. Arthur Seligman of New Mexico and former assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Santa Fe, was sentenced to five years in a Federal prison and fined $10,000 when he pleaded guilty today to charges of violating national banking laws.

Eight other former employees of the bank, of which Gov. Seligman is president, received lenient sentences and since by Judge Vaughn when they also pleaded guilty. Federal officials reported the men accused were short $70,000 in their accounts.

summer camp, was near the pier and saw the explosion. He called workers from a nearby power house and returned to the water front to give aid.

Today was the workers' regular weekly pay day and many had reported for duty early.

One diver was sent to the scene by the city Department of Docks and two more by the Brooklyn navy yard.

More than three hours after the explosion police said investigation indicated there were 185 men on the Observer when the boilers exploded.

It was the worst river tragedy here since 1926, when 58 men were drowned as a work launch was crushed in the ice-choked Hudson. The launch was the Linsend King, and it was carrying a load of newly employed men to their first day's work in New Jersey. Ice floes broke the little boat to bits, and they drowned or were ground to death.

KREUGER'S SCISSORS BRING $12 AT SALE OF HIS POSSESSIONS

Ordinary Kitchen Kettle Sold for $10 Each at Stockholm Auction.

By the Associated Press.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 9.—Curio hunters packed the sales room here today at the auction of the private possessions of the late Ivar Kreuger, Swedish match king. A pair of steel scissors with the match king's name engraved on them brought about $12, and ordinary kitchen kettles worth about a dollar sold for 10 times their value. The auctioneer said he was astounded by the prices, which seemed to suggest that the economic depression must be a myth.

EXPECTS ST. LOUIS TO HAVE 10-STORY U. S. BUILDING

Official Tells Muehch Administration Is Going Ahead With Plans On That Line.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—City Counselor Muehch was assured today by L. C. Martin of the Treasury-Postoffice Joint Commission on buildings that the administration was going ahead with plans for a 10-story Federal building in St. Louis believing that this would be the most economical type of structure.

Martin also told Muehch that the Treasury Department had not yet reached a decision regarding the optional $100,000,000 building appropriation in the recent relief bill. The proposed new postoffice annex for St. Louis is included in this optional fund which can be expended only after the Secretary of the Treasury has notified the President that the money is available.

Muehch said he got the impression from Martin that the proposed St. Louis structure would be included in the building program if Secretary Mills found that the money was available. Plans for the annex originally called for an expenditure of $4,750,000. This amount may be reduced by 10 per cent.

DENOUNCES BARRING VOTERS WHO HAVE ACCEPTED RELIEF

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Senator Walsh (Dem., Massachusetts), in a statement issued through the Democratic National Committee, said it will "work to President Hoover's advantage in the coming election if the jobless army is deprived of the privilege of voting."

Walsh commented on reports that unemployed persons in Lewiston, Me., had been deprived of their right to vote because they accepted State or municipal relief. He said that the Federal City Committee, which was here by the chairman of the Republican City Committee, Walsh said "there have been many ghastly things done in the name of politics, but never in our history was there a more heinous crime than the barring of voters from the polls because they have accepted relief."

Missouri election laws contain nothing to disfranchise recipients of charitable aid, so long as they do not live in poor-houses at public expense. The State Constitution, in Article VIII, states that "no person while kept in any poorhouse or other asylum at public expense, except the Soldiers' Home at St. James and the Confederate Home at Higginsville," shall be entitled to vote. The provision as to soldiers' homes is authorized by the State Constitution.

FORMER FEDERAL ATTORNEY HELD IN $750,000 FRAUD

Los Angeles Real Estate Broker, Charged With Homestead Swindle, Once Official in Nebraska.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—William S. Summers, 70 years old, Glendale (Cal.) real estate broker and identified by Federal authorities as a former United States Attorney and Assistant Attorney-General of Nebraska, was arrested today for alleged participation in a plot in which 1500 persons were defrauded of $750,000.

Simultaneously, Harry C. Balter, Assistant United States Attorney here, said a search was under way for three alleged associates identified as Harry N. Wheeler, Los Angeles attorney, and Harry C. Clark and Othello A. Adams, also of Los Angeles.

Summers was served with a copy of the charge by two Postal Inspectors, who placed him in the county jail. He later obtained release by posting $5000 bail.

The Federal indictment, which alleged use of the mails to defraud, accused the four men of collecting money from various individuals on representations that a large area of choice lands in Southern California was open to homestead rights.

Conveying this information to prospects, the indictment alleged, the four men made retainer contracts "of no value whatever" and then dealt in the contracts by buying and selling them. Money was collected for the purpose of going to Washington to prove the homestead claims, but instead the men were charged with converting "a large portion of said money to their own use and benefit" and proceeding later on fraudulent proceedings many years ago and that the title, therefore, was worthless. The representation was made that the land actually belonged to the Government and could be homesteaded.

The prospect was induced to file a homestead and pay a fee, which ranged from several dollars to several thousand, the money to pay the "expenses of establishing the homestead rights."

Balter said the lands included such prominent properties as the Palms Verdes estate, subdivided by Frank Vanderlip, New York millionaire, portions of the famous Irvine Ranch, the Malibu Country, favorite retreat of movie actors, and others.

When Robins' disappearance became public, it was learned that Federal agents already had been investigating the case quietly. Chief W. H. Moran of the Secret Service, though, would say only that "certain inquiries" had been requested and made "without result."

"This concludes our part of the matter unless we are requested to make an investigation," Moran said. Mrs. Robins named Alexander Gumburg of New York, as the only person she could find who saw Robins on Saturday. Gumburg, a banker, reported that Robins packed his bags and left the Club, apparently for Washington. Smith said Robins had been five weeks ago of the threats against him.

"He laughed about it," said. "He never sought protection. It was all a joke to him."

Mrs. Robins quoted her husband as saying the threats "seemed to have no effect on him" and said she had knowledge of the menace to him to take steps for the protection of his property in the event of his death.

Robins is 59 years old and a native of Staten Island, N. Y., was in the Klondike gold rush in Alaska in 1898 and acquired a mine enabling him to devote time to social betterment work, formerly Miss Margaret Robins, also a well-known worker.

Between 1902 and 1905 he served in social betterment work in Chicago and later was on the Chicago Board of Education. Turned to politics, he became chairman of the Illinois Central Committee, the Progressive Party and was party's candidate for the United States Senate in 1914. In 1916 was temporary chairman of Progressive National Convention.

Robins was an active worker with the Y. M. C. A. and C. A. During the war he was a Lieutenant-Colonel in the American Red Cross Mission Russia, serving in that capacity from November, 1917, to 1918.

It was while in Russia that met Gumburg, who served as secretary and returned with him to this country. Robins was member of the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee from 1920 to 1924. Robins had been associated with the allied force prohibition headed by Dr. R. A. Poling. He served on "flying squadrons" making wide speaking tours.

Robins recently donated a large estate to the Federal Government for a farm experiment station with the proviso that his wife would be allowed to live there for life.

Robins also is widely known for his interest in the outwitting of Robins' Wife Says No Reward Ransom Will Be Paid.

SOUTH WEST HARBOR, Sept. 9.—No reward or ransom will be offered in the search for Raymond Robins.

Miss Edith Klesick, secretary of Mrs. Robins, who is visiting here, said that after the finding of the body of the missing man, Col. Robins told his wife, "I don't want to offer any reward or pay any ransom."

Mrs. Robins will follow wishes of her husband, Mr. Klesick said.

New York agent of the Federal Department of Justice arrived this morning and conferred for several hours with Mrs. Robins.

able to find no trace of him and do not know where he is.

Only a few minutes later, Mrs. Robins telephoned the Associated Press here from Southwest Harbor, Me., where she is visiting her sister, Miss Mary Dreier. She expressed fear that her husband had been killed by Florida bootleggers in connection with bootlegging in New York.

Mrs. Robins cited numerous threatening letters from anonymous sources. As late as Aug. 6 and 7, she said Col. Robins had been threatened over the telephone by unidentified persons who predicted serious consequences if his prohibition efforts were not halted.

In Florida, chief source of the threats mentioned by Mrs. Robins, S. D. Coogler, president of the First National Bank at Brookville, said Col. Robins had been expected to arrive yesterday or today, but had not. Robins has a Brookville home and is chairman of the bank's board.

LAWYERS TO GET 50 PCT., COUSIN OF THOMASSON SAYS

Sister of Plaintiff in Sanity Trial Admits Relatives Signed 28 Contracts With Attorneys.

ONE AGREEMENT PUT IN EVIDENCE

Provides That Half of Anything Obtained From Estate Goes to Taylor R. Young and P. H. Cullen.

Relatives of Hugh W. Thomasson, wealthy real estate owner, who are seeking to have him declared of unsound mind, have signed 28 contracts whereby their attorneys will get 50 per cent of anything the relatives may realize ultimately from his estate, according to testimony of Thomasson's second cousin, Mrs. Ella F. Bolles, 1130 Watts avenue, University City.

Mrs. Bolles is a witness for her sister, Miss Emma Townsend, who instituted the sanity hearing in Circuit Judge Hoffmeister's court. The hearing, which has been going on nearly four weeks, continued today with the informant's case still unfinished.

The contract signed by Mrs. Bolles with the attorneys, Taylor R. Young and Patrick H. Cullen, has been introduced into evidence. It will not be read until the defense presents its case. Mrs. Bolles admitted it does not require her to pay any expenses of legal action in connection with Thomasson's estate.

Explains Interest in Case.

She said, however, that she would pay any bills if they were submitted to her. "My interest in the case," she testified, "is to see the attorneys get this old man's (Thomasson's) estate back for him so it will not be stolen by a lot of thieves." She had previously said, "You don't realize anything on an estate until a person is dead. I don't want a cent of Hugh's money while he lives."

Cullen and Young have continued to object to introduction of testimony about the contracts on the ground that such evidence is immaterial. Objecting to the "waste of time" by Randolph Laughlin, counsel for Thomasson, Cullen told the court, "Thomasson is old and will be dead when we're still trying this case."

Witnesses following Mrs. Bolles told of Thomasson's peculiar habits when he lived at the former Thomasson home on the northwest corner of Grand and Delmar boulevards. William E. Beem, officer of a men's club class at the Third Baptist Church, Grand and Washington boulevards, said Thomasson was a former member of the class.

"Dressed Like a Tramp."

"I wouldn't call him crazy but I would call him of unsound mind," Beem said. "He dressed like a tramp, stared at people, especially women, and would come in and take his seat with him at one of the tables, shaking his fist several times but had no success. Other people tried it but were treated likewise. He would just grunt in answer."

Charles Levels, 2647 1/2 Papin street, former Negro janitor in the Thomasson home, said that during his residence in the basement there from 1905 to 1917, he had kept his door locked to prevent Thomasson from entering.

Relating that Thomasson "talked to himself and waved his hands," he said he had once seen the real estate owner looking into the plants and windows, shaking his fist, cursing and shouting, "I'll kill you!" apparently to his own injury. The janitor said that when Thomasson's mother died, he found her in her room and ran to tell Thomasson. He said Thomasson looked at her and without any trace of emotion, remarked, "She sure is gone."

Levels said Thomasson was always "scared of women." A former Negro janitor in the home told of hearing Thomasson in his room one night threatening to kill someone, and investigating learned Thomasson was only talking to himself.

John M. Trendley, 617 North Twenty-second street, East St. Louis, testified he had seen Thomasson about a month ago at a house at 615 North Twenty-second street, East St. Louis. Trendley said Thomasson was taken there in an automobile in which there were an elderly man and woman and a young woman who "looked like" Thomasson's wife, Mrs. Grace Carolyn Thomasson.

Trendley said Laughlin and R. Young were with them.

STATE APPEALS RULING ON INDICTED LAWYERS

Challenges Judge Beck's Quashing of Charges Against J. L. Wren and M. A. Block.

The State today filed an appeal from the action of Circuit Judge Beck in quashing criminal indictments against James L. Wren and Morris A. Block, attorneys charged respectively with obtaining money by false pretenses and attempting to obtain money by false pretenses.

Filing of the appeal affidavit marked the first time the State has appealed from a ruling in a criminal case in the memory of court attachers. The appeal was filed by Assistant Circuit Attorney Hearnings, prosecutor in Judge Beck's courtroom, who declared in the affidavit that "the appellant, the State of Missouri, is aggrieved by judgment and decision of the Court."

Judge Beck's ruling was entered on Aug. 27, on motions to quash entered by attorneys for Wren and Block. Beyond upholding the motions, he made no comment. The State's affidavit of appeal did not reveal on what grounds the Circuit Attorney will contest the rulings.

Wren was indicted on a charge that he and Wilbert A. Stogsdill, former policeman, had fraudulently promised jobs in the Police Department to a man from whom they had accepted money. A third man, William B. Roberts, a laborer, previously pleaded guilty to the same charge and was sentenced to five months in jail. Wren formerly was a member of the State Legislature. Block was charged with an attempt to obtain $285 from an insurance company by alleging that a client had been injured in an automobile accident last December. The claim was made against the company which had insured the driver, who was supposed to have hit her. The client denied having been injured.

NEGRO KILLS MAN, WOUNDS TWO, AT STREET PREACHING Scatters Philadelphia Crowd and, After Critically Shooting Policeman, Ends Life.

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—One man was killed and two others wounded by a Negro with a pistol, who scattered a crowd listening to a street preacher at Ninth and Market streets last night, and then shot and killed himself. Frank Crandall, 61 years old, a retired railroad man, died early today from wounds inflicted by the Negro.

The Negro opened fire without warning, his shots falling on Crandall and E. F. Piggott, an accountant. August Le Benz, a policeman, hurried to the scene. He received two bullets in the chest. He is in a critical condition. The Negro started to run as the policeman fell but stopped suddenly and turned the pistol on himself.

SEABURY IN ENGLAND DENIES HE PLANS TO RUN FOR MAYOR
By the Associated Press.
PLYMOUTH, England, Sept. 9.—Samuel Seabury, counsel of the Hofstadter investigating committee which looked into Mayor James J. Walker's administration in New York City, arrived yesterday aboard the liner Paris.

The investigator denied he had any plans to run for Mayor of New York should Walker be a candidate, and said that he was taking his usual summer vacation. Pointing out that the Walker resignation brought the hearing before Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt to an abrupt end, Seabury continued: "When he ran away there was nothing to do but stop the trial, for we could not remove a man who had removed himself."

PLUMBER TELLS POLICE TWO MEN BEAT HIM

Says He Was Talking to Woman About Job When She Exclaimed 'My Husband.'

Joseph Pitch, 49 years old, a plumber, reported to police he was beaten over the head yesterday afternoon by two men who attacked him at the door of an apartment on the second floor at 410 North Euclid avenue, where he had gone to see about a plumbing job. Pitch, who lives at 305 Westgate avenue, University City, and has a shop at 2006 Franklin avenue, said a woman saw him in his truck on Seventh street between Pine and Chestnut streets and told him to call at the North Euclid address and ask for a woman whose name she gave, to see about the job.

The plumber said he found the woman there but was told to return today. As he started away from the door, he said, two young men stepped up and one asked, "What's going on?" Pitch asked who the man was and the woman said, "My husband." The plumber said one man drew a revolver and ordered him into the apartment.

He refused and fought with the pair, finally getting possession of the revolver after he had been struck on the head with it. He told police he fired two shots at his assailants as they fled and thought he hit one in the foot. Police went to the apartment but found no one there. Pitch was treated for scalp wounds.

SUPERSEDING INDICTMENTS IN LODGE LOTTERY CASE

Prosecutor Says New True Bills Are to Prevent Any Objection; Four to Trial Sept. 19.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—United States Senator James J. Davis and seven others were named in four superseding indictments returned by the grand jury yesterday in connection with lotteries put on by fraternal organizations for charity purposes.

Federal Attorney George Z. Medalla explained that the bills were "substantially the same" as the four indictments brought last month charging violation of the lottery and conspiracy laws. "It is just a matter of procedure to prevent any possible objection," he added.

The other defendants are Theodore G. Miller, head of the propaganda department of the Moose Lodge; Bernard C. McGuire, New York merchant; Raymond Walsh, an employee of McGuire; Conrad H. Mann, national executive of the Fraternal Order of Eagles; Frank E. Herring, publisher of the Eagle magazine; M. J. Rivis, head of the package delivery department of Western Union, and the Western Union Telegraph Co. The first four will go on trial Sept. 19.

BROTHERS' KILLING IS INVESTIGATED
BY TEXAS RANGERS

Governor Orders Further Inquiry After Inquest Verdict of Accident in Shooting of 2 on Ranch.

By the Associated Press.
SAN MARCOS, Tex., Sept. 9.—
The death of two young sons of a millionaire ranchman, which a Justice of the Peace pronounced accidental, will be inquired into by Texas Rangers.

Arthur Morton, 15 years old, was found dead yesterday inside a stone building which he and his brother, Harry, 14, used as sleeping quarters on the summer home of Mr.
and Mrs. Arthur Hunter Morton of San Antonio. Harry, fatally wounded, lay about 25 yards from the house.

Seventy-five yards from the house was the $300,000 ranch house in which other members of the household sleep.

Near Arthur's body was a pistol, with four exploded shells. He had been shot through the head. Harry had been shot three times and died in a hospital.

There were spots of blood on the walls of the sleeping porch of the house and on a bed and cot. Three bullet holes were found in the screen wire of the porch. A bit of stained hand ax was inside the building.

A. M. Ramsay, Justice of the Peace, returned a verdict of accidental death, saying he thought the boys were shot in a struggle for possession of the pistol.

The San Marcos News, through its manager, F. W. Faria, asked Gov. Sterling to send Rangers, expressing dissatisfaction with the verdict. Capt. Frank Hamer and George M. Allen of the Rangers came from Austin.

The boys were to have returned soon to their winter home at San Antonio to attend high school.

SOCIALISTS SAY U. S. OFFICIALS HAVE HELD UP POSTAL PERMIT

Editor Charges Granting of Permit Is Delayed for Political Reasons.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The Socialist party of America charged today its application for second-class mailing privileges for presidential campaign literature had been held up by postal officials "for political reasons."

"We made application for the mailing rights on Aug. 2," said Edward Levinson, editor of America for All, the party's official organ.
"We were assured the Postoffice Department would take action within three weeks."

"So far, however, postal authorities have delayed the matter with technical objections of a complicated character. The withholding of mailing privileges to which we are clearly entitled leads us to suspect the publication is being subjected to this treatment solely on political grounds."

"We have attacked President Hoover's record and policies, as well as the record and promises of the Democratic party. This we shall continue to do."

Levinson said all requirements for obtaining the mailing rights were met, a $100 fee paid, and cooperation given to postal officials.

CLEVELAND POLICE RESCUE
RELIEF WORKER FROM CROWD

Quell Three Demonstrations of Jobless With Clubs and Tear Gas; Three Bystanders.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9.—Two men and a woman were clubbed by police yesterday and a woman charity worker was rescued from a mob as police squads quelled three demonstrations of the unemployed in different parts of the city. Tear gas bombs were used as police charged the crowds. Two alleged leaders were arrested.

Two of the demonstrations occurred at branches of the Associated Charities, where charity workers called for police aid when "unreasonable demands" were made. The other disturbance took place on the Public Square, where Mrs. Alice Schmidt, who until recently operated a free soup kitchen, was pushed from the speaker's box when she criticized Communists for their attitude toward the Associated Charities. Policemen secured her.

MARATHON DANCER INJURED
Thomas McNerny of St. Louis Cut-lapses at Toledo.

By the Associated Press.
TOLEDO, O., Sept. 9.—The strain of 564 hours of marathon dancing overcame his will to keep awake and yesterday just as Thomas McNerny, 25 years old of St. Louis, was walking off the floor for the internation.

He collapsed with such suddenness that physicians said he suffered a fractured vertebrae and was in danger of paralysis.

NEW U. S. TREATY WITH HAITI MADE PUBLIC

Marine Officers to Be Withdrawn From National Guard by 1935.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The new treaty between the United States and Haiti provides for the withdrawal of United States marine officers from the Haitian national guard by 1935 and the early transfer to Haitians of civil functions now performed by Americans.

The text of the treaty, made public at the State Department, disclosed that it followed the general lines laid down in the recommendations of the Forbes Commission, which made a study of Haitian problems more than a year ago. The document was signed Sept. 3.

Another outstanding provision of the treaty provides for an established program for the amortization of the Haitian national debt under American supervision.

The agreement which supersedes the 1915 treaty is now before the Haitian Congress.

It provides for withdrawal of the marine brigade established at Port au Prince "as soon as may prove practicable" after the "complete" Haitianization of the national guard.

Provision is made in the treaty for supervision by an American fiscal representative of customs collections, and the allocation of receipts toward payment of the Haitian national debt. The internal revenue service would be placed under a Haitian director with exclusive Haitian personnel, unless the Government desires to retain the services of foreign technical employees now directing this work.

If the national budget issues are paid at maturity, the military mission charged with the training and disciplining of the guard.

The marine force in Haiti, now numbering about 300, is divided into the Port au Prince brigade and the officer personnel serving with the national guard. The latter group would be retired from the guard by Dec. 31, 1934, while the former would be removed from Haiti soon thereafter and supplanted by an American military mission charged with the training and disciplining of the guard.

THINKS CLIMATE CONTROLS GOVERNMENT OF COUNTRY

University Professor Says It Also Causes Proverbial Restlessness of Americans.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Dr. Victor E. Levine, professor of bio-chemistry at Creighton University, Omaha, Neb., told the American Congress of Physical Therapy today he believed that "the type of Government of a country is controlled by its climate." He also expressed belief that crime is traceable to climatic conditions.

"The ideal climate in which the human race develops its greatest energy, inventiveness and aggressiveness," he said, "is one which displays variations in storminess and in temperature, provided the variations are not too great." He added that the stimulating climate of the United States accounts for "the proverbial restlessness of the American and his inability to relax and enjoy life sensibly."

ARRESTED IN MURDER OF TWO POLICEMEN

Man Wanted at Harrisburg, Ill., Caught in West Virginia Cabin.

By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Ill., Sept. 9.— Edward Brewer, 36 years old, who had been sought since July 3 for the killing of Dan Law, Harrisburg
Chief of Police, and Grady Sutton, Illinois State Highway patrolman, was captured yesterday near Beckley, W. Va., officers here were notified today.

Brewer was armed when found by three State troopers of West Virginia and a Justice of the Peace in a house on the New River, near Beckley, but was seized before he could draw his pistol. West Virginia authorities said Brewer admitted his identity but denied any knowledge of the double slaying.

Law and Sutton were shot when they were taking to the jail here three men they had arrested as suspects. After the shooting the three men fled in an automobile.

The next day Wesley Sheward, thought to have been one of the three involved in the slaying, was found shot to death seven miles northwest of Harrisburg. Officers of Southern Illinois counties and State Highway police, made an extensive search for the other two men.

The third man wanted, Neal McGinley, is still at large. Rewards of $500 were offered for the capture of each of the two fugitives. Both McGinley and Brewer are under indictment for murder.

Plans were made for an early return of Brewer to Harrisburg for trial.

FUNERAL OF MICHAEL BURKE, VETERAN POSTAL EMPLOYEE

Burial in Calvary Cemetery From Immaculate Conception Church
Today.

Funeral services for Michael A.
Burke, veteran postal employee, were conducted today from the Finan chapel, 1519 South Grand boulevard, to Immaculate Conception Church. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Burke, who was 69 years old, died Tuesday of a heart attack at his residence, 1647 Rutger street. He retired as a postman four years ago after 40 years of service, having joined the department in 1888 with A. J. Michener, now postmaster. During the entire period of his service he was employed at the University Station, now known as the College Station, 1513 Lindell boulevard.

During the early years of his service streets in the vicinity of Grand and Lindell were unmade and he recalled wading through muddy avenues in rubber boots to deliver the mail. He was unmarried and is survived by a nephew, Walter A. Whelan, and three nieces.

NEUN CALLS FOR LOYALTY TO G. O. P. IN 'ADVERSITY'

Acting Mayor Applauded by Women When He Mentions Proposed Candidacy.

Acting Mayor Neun called for "loyalty to our party in adversity as in prosperity" in an address at a meeting of the Republican Women's Club yesterday at Hotel Statler.

A reference to his known receptive attitude toward the nomination for Mayor next March evoked the heartiest applause of the afternoon. Speaking of the bond issue projects he could observe under way from the windows of the Mayor's office, he added, "and I expect to be looking from those windows for a good many years to come."

Republican success in November would be "not only a political victory, but an economic victory," he declared. "When we see our party and our leaders did not cause this thing, we're going to get out of it, and we're going to help our leaders."

Richard E. Gruner, new chairman of the Republican City Central Committee, was to have spoken but asked to be excused because of illness.

DENIES PAYING INJUNCTION JUDGE REFUSES TO HEAR ACTION AGAINST ASPHALT CO. ON MERITS.

Federal Judge Davis yesterday refused a temporary injunction against the Asphalt Paving Co. of St. Louis sought by the National Fin-Mix Co. and Samuel E. Finney, who alleged the Asphalt Co.
had infringed on a patent they hold for a mixing process.

The judge said he preferred to keep the case on its merits before making a decision. He pointed out that temporary injunctions should be issued only in extraordinary cases, and held that an injunction in this case might injure the public by interfering with street paving contracts held by the Asphalt Co.

MARKET ST. PAVING OPEN North Side of Widened Thorough- fare Put in Use.

The newly paved north side of widened Market street at Union Station, between Eighteenth and Twentieth streets, was opened to traffic this morning and preparations were made to close the south side for about four weeks during paving work.

Paving of Market street between Ninth and Twentieth will begin at once.
Surfacing of the street between Sixth and Twentieth streets and of Walnut street between Third and Ninth, to form a continuous 100-foot traffic artery, will be completed, it is hoped, before winter sets in.

REPORT LIKELY SOON ON N. 12TH WIDENING

Technical Expert on Condemnation Thinks Cost Will Be $2,000,000.

The widening of North Twelfth boulevard from Washington avenue to Palm street, where it will connect with widened Natural Bridge avenue, will cost about $2,000,000. It is estimated by William C. Bernard, technical expert in the city's condemnation division.

Condemnation commissioners have not completed their report, Bernard said, but may do so within a month or six weeks. His estimate is based on preliminary figures.

The street has already been widened to 100 feet from Washington avenue to O'Fallon street, except for the block between Washington and Lucas, where the width is 115 feet. The section north of O'Fallon street probably will not be widened until next year.

When completed, widened Twelfth boulevard will form the center link in a broad thoroughfare including Natural Bridge and Gravois avenues and connecting the city with the downtown section.

The widening from Washington to O'Fallon was completed under a stipulation with owners of abutting property and cost $175,225, exclusive of the cost of paving, $15,000. Adjustments still to be made with owners of two small pieces of property are expected to round the cost of widening out to about $1,000,000.

Part of this will be paid by the city with bond issue funds and part will be assessed against owners of property in the benefited district. The commissioners have not determined on the shares to be paid by the city and by property owners.

The widening from O'Fallon to Palm streets, about twice as long as the section already completed, is expected to cost more than $1,000,000, because of lower property values in that neighborhood.

The commissioners will resume their deliberation Tuesday after an interval of several weeks. In five years since they were appointed they have held 725 meetings. Members are Otto Dietz, a contractor; Julius Drucker, an attorney; and Edward C. Wagner, a real estate man.

First proceedings looking toward widening of the street were begun in September, 1920. Filing of the commissioners' report will bring the matter near an end. Property owners and the city, however, may file objections to the report in court.

FINE IS REDUCED ON APPEAL

Husband of Hospital Head Accused by Nurse.

A fine of $100 for peace disturbance imposed in Police Court on Charles Shaver, husband of Dr. Nellie Shaver, American Hospital head, was reduced to $10 by Judge Weinbrener after appeal in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday.

Shaver was charged with disturbing the peace of Miss Helen Love, 4224 Page boulevard, a nurse at the hospital, who testified that in the performance of her duties, she inadvertently entered a room already occupied by Shaver, who struck and cursed her in ordering her to leave. Shaver denied the charges, alleging the nurse had thrown a piece of hospital apparatus at him and he had pushed her out of the room.

TWO ST. LOUIS TRUCK DRIVERS HELD UP; ROBBERS GIVE ALARM

Victims Locked in Freight Car; Anonymous Call Tell Police Where to Find Him.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Two St. Louis truck drivers were robbed of their load of merchandise today by five men who were the first to report the crime to police.

Patrick Osborne and William Chaney, driving the truck, said five men in two automobiles stopped them at Braidwood, 60 miles southwest of here, drove them to Chicago and locked them in an empty freight car.

Before police heard their story they received an anonymous telephone call telling them a stolen truck had been abandoned on the southwest side and two men had been locked in a box car on a designated siding. Police said the robbers probably feared their victims would starve to death.

At the St. Louis Freight Forwarding Co. it was said that an independent hauler, operating out of Collinsville, Ill. It was not known from whom he obtained his load or what it contained.

GRAND RAPIDS SAYS SCRIP HURTS MORALE OF JOBLESS

By the Associated Press.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 9.—The Grand Rapids plan of unemployment relief is to be revised with cash instead of scrip paid to jobless men who work on artificially created municipal projects.

A committee of business and professional men recommended the change after an investigation. Scrip payments were said to damage the morale of the unemployed.

BOND

8th and WashingtonFINDS MARRIAGE IS NO SEDATIVE FOR 'NERVES'Dr. Willoughby Reports to American Psychological Association on Findings.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 8.—So far as its effects on cases of "nervous" is concerned, marriage is no sedative. Instead, it speeds up the pace so much that 152 married couples described to the American Psychological Association meeting here rate distinctly more nerves than single boys and girls.

The effect of having children is peculiar. The arrival of the first baby has a "calming" effect on the husband and just the reverse on the wife. But couples with three or more children both seem to have conquered their nerves more effectively than other married groups.

This report is made by Raymond Royce Willoughby of Clark University, under the heading "Neuroticism in Marriage." Neurotic means any nervous maladjustment not caused by organic troubles. Shell shock is the most shining example of neuroticism.

Women, said Dr. Willoughby, have more of this sort of nervous upset than men, but the differences are not great and sex is only a minor cause.

"Are you interested in meeting a lot of different kinds of people?" was one question put to the 152 couples and the collegiates. "Yes," meant nervousness, a sort of wanderlust, perhaps.

"Yes," replied 40 per cent of the husbands, 24 per cent of the wives, 14 per cent of the male students and 6 per cent of the female students.

"At a reception or tea do you seek to meet the most important person present?" was another. Husbands "yesed" to 74 per cent, wives beat them with 78, while both the boys and girls at college tied at 47.

One Husband Afraid of Dark. At being frightened in the middle of the night, husbands rated one, wives 13, male students none and female students 13. At being afraid of lightning, the husbands rated 6, wives 31, male students 7 and female students 22.

Ready tears, stage fright, tiring of work easily, "feeling just miserable" and "being at least sometimes a social leader" were some of the nerve tester subjects.

A new electrical instrument which records some of the strange happenings of hypnosis was described by Dr. Erich Lindemann of the University of Iowa. When a hypnotized person is told his arm is paralyzed, the electrical record shows that an actual change takes place in the muscle whose paralysis has been "suggested." This muscle becomes less "excitable" electrically.

Value of "Warming Up." Unexpected secrets of success in sports and work alike are found in discoveries about "warming up" reported by E. B. Skaggs of the College of the City of Detroit.

Warming up takes distinctly longer when a person is deeply engrossed in something else just before beginning work. Emotions and excitement at the start, interfere with getting into good form sometimes for the entire first part of the undertaking.

Lack of interest at the outset results frequently in failure to do good work. But when initial interest is high, often hardly any warming up is needed.

The "off form" of the tennis player is connected in some obscure fashion with warming up. The "mechanisms" which constitute his skill fail to respond to effort. Very highly trained persons, however, recover this form quickly.

Probably the "off form" is explained, said Dr. Skaggs, by failure of the mental faculties to remember, or what is called "blocked recall."

"Limbering up" a favorite stunt of athletes is found to play a rather minor role compared with the less commonly realized factors. Ink Blots and Character.

Successes in a new method of analyzing character and personality by use of ink blots on paper were described by Samuel J. Beck, Ph. D., of Boston Psychopathic hospital.

The ink blots are made by folding a paper covered with wet ink spots, with the result that cloud-like patterns form. Like seeing a giant bird in cloud formations, a person gazes at these ink patterns and tells the psychologist what they remind him of.

This is a short cut to discovering hidden motives or troubles, which may be unrealized even by the ink-gazer.

For example, Dr. Beck said that a girl of excellent education who would not have been taken for a person of domestic inclinations saw repeatedly in the spots pictures of sewing and crocheting, which led to discovery of one of her true interests. Another person saw the United States House of Representatives assembled with a Congressman making a speech. This kind of picture-making, Dr. Beck said, comes only from a superior intelligence. Sluggish minds do not see such rich imagery.

Dr. L. L. Thurston, professor of psychology at the University of Chicago, was elected president of the association. Chicago was selected for the 1933 convention from Sept. 7 to 13, inclusive.

Church of Nazarene Convention. The twenty-second annual convention of the Missouri district of the Church of the Nazarene is in session at the Lafayette Park Church of the Nazarene, 1800 St. Vincent avenue. The meetings began Monday and will continue until tomorrow. Four hundred delegates are attending the convention.

WOULD ABANDON MOST OF 200
MILITARY OUTPOSTS IN U. S.Phil A. Bennett, Candidate for Congress, Says They Are Relics of Indian Days.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 8.—Abandonment of most of the 200 military outposts and forts in the United States was advocated in a reply received yesterday to a questionnaire sent Missouri's candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate by the Missouri branch of the National Organization to Reduce Public Expenses.

The suggestion came to Conrad H. Mann, chairman, from Phil A. Bennett of Springfield, Republican, former Lieutenant-Governor of Missouri, and now a candidate for Congress. These forts and outposts, the candidate said, were relics of Indian days.

"They are retained largely because Congressmen want them,"

Bennett's communication said. "Most of these old outposts could be abandoned without impairing the country's defenses."

The questionnaire asked the 26 candidates if they would favor cutting $750,000,000 from the Government's expenses.

THREE ACQUITTED IN THIRD-DEGREE DEATH AT MINEOLA

Deputy Chief and Two Detectives Freed of Manslaughter Accusation at Second Trial.

By the Associated Press.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Sept. 9. — A deputy chief of police and two detectives were acquitted today at their second trial for the "third degree" killing of Hyman Stark, young robbery suspect.

The jury freed the three men of a manslaughter charge at 2:15
p. m. after deliberating since 1:15
p. m. yesterday. Their first trial ended in a jury disagreement on Aug. 28.

The defendants, Deputy Chief
Frank J. Tuppen and Detectives Leslie Pearall and Harry Zander, sat white-faced as the jury filed in.
After the foreman said "not guilty"
the remained motionless, unsmiling for some time. Then they went out, surrounded by a congratulating crowd of friends. A group of their comrades tried to hoist the three on their shoulders, but the press of others seeking to shake their hands prevented the occurrence.

Assault charges are still pending against Pearall and Zander and eight other policemen in connection with Stark's death. District Attorney Elvin N. Edwards charged that the youth, arrested for the robbery and beating of Detective Joseph Elie's mother, was killed for "revenge."

Stark died in police headquarters July 15 of suffocation attributed to a fractured larynx. The district attorney says he had been taken to a sound-proof rifle room and beaten with rubber hose, blackjacks, fists and feet. Physicians said his body was marked from head to foot.

Jurors disclosed that never during their all-night session had any of them considered a manslaughter verdict. Suggestions that two of the defendants be convicted of assault were made during the night, but the acquittal was reached when a juror said they were guilty of manslaughter or nothing.

District Attorney Edwards, who had called Stark's treatment "savage brutality," left the court room without making a statement.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE FAILS

TO RECOGNIZE GERMAN PRINCE

Louis Ferdinand Enters Chicago

Hotel Hadlun, Courtless and Without Tie.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Dignified members of a reception committee, awaiting to welcome to Chicago a Prince of the house of Hohenzol-lern were gathered in the lobby of the Bismarck Hotel.

In strolled a youth—costless, hatted and without a necktie. After a perfunctory glance the committee members resumed their conversation, for the newcomer looked like —well, just what he was, a Detroit automobile mechanic on vacation.

The stranger spent a few moments standing at the edge of the crowd. Then he was recognized—the Prince Louis Ferdinand, son of the former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm.

After introductions had been performed the Prince went to his rooms and attired himself in more courtly array. Then he met his brother, the Prince Friedrich Wilhelm, and they joined the reception committee.

Louis Ferdinand is employed in a Detroit automobile factory. He drove his sown car here yesterday to meet his brother, who had spent the last three weeks touring the Pacific Coast. When Friedrich Wilhelm returns East, Louis Ferdinand will go back to Detroit to resume his job in the factory.

HORSEWOMAN TAKES POISON

Mlle. Dorange in Serious Condition

at Monte Carlo.

By the Associated Press.

MONTÉ CARLO, Monaco, Sept.
9.—Mlle. Rachel Dorange, French horsewoman, is reported in a serious condition at a hospital as a result of swallowing poison. She took the poison in a hotel at Can-nes, France, west of here, and the hotel proprietor drove her by automobile to her apartment here for medical attention. When her condition became worse she was moved to a hospital.

Police said they found letters in her apartment saying she intended to end her life because of private and financial troubles. They were addressed to a brother and her mother. Mlle. Dorange a few years ago rode from Paris to Bucharest and Warsaw, one mount carrying her entire distance. She previously made a ride from Paris to Berlin and back.

TWO NEW PETITIONS IN FRISCO LITIGATION

One Seeks to Dismiss Receiver Action, Other to Amend Original Action.

An amended petition for a receiver for the Frisco Railroad was filed in Federal Court this morning and a motion to dismiss the petition was presented to Federal Judge Paris this afternoon.

The amended petition embodied the allegations of the original petition filed last month by two holders of the road's prior lien bonds and in addition asked that the railroad be enjoined from putting into effect its financial readjustment plan.

The new petition objected to the railroad's financial policy, which it charged benefited stockholders at the expense of bondholders, and alleged that the company had arbitrarily increased the value of its property by about $45,000,000 shortly after reorganization in 1916.

At present the over-valuation of the property amounts to about $125,000,000, based on an appraisal by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the petition charged. If this over-valuation were to be eliminated, it is stated, the equity of stockholders, comprising $3,500,000 of alleged surplus and $114,500,000 par value of stock, would disappear and remaining assets would be less than liabilities.

Another suit to enjoin the railroad from carrying out its adjustment plan was filed in the New York Supreme Court yesterday by Cornelius A. Sullivan, holder of $8000 in principal amount of the road's prior lien and consolidated mortgage bonds and a member of a bondholders' protective committee.

The suit alleged that the plan amounted in effect to raising new capital for stockholders at the expense of bondholders and that it would subordinate present outstanding bonds to a new $25,000,000 mortgage issue on the railroad property.

At the time the suit was filed the road's Readjustment Committee stated that $4 per cent of the bonds had been deposited in support of the plan, the time for deposit expires Sept. 26.

The management of the road has said that unless there were a prompt and virtually unanimous consent to the plan on the part of affected security owners, the company would have no alternative but to consent to a receivership.

The original receivership suit filed here objected to the plan as unfair to prior lien bondholders, charged that the road was insolvent and that assets had been wasted by directors, and cited borrowings from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Railroad Credit Corporation to meet obligations.

A meeting of Frisco stockholders will be held Monday in the road's general offices at 908 Olive street to vote on proposals to carry out the plan or any modification of it.

The railroad adopted the plan after the Interstate Commerce Commission approved a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on condition the road would reduce fixed charges. The company was able to meet its Sept. 1 interest requirements of about $2,400,000 with the aid of a $1,000,000 loan from the Railroad Credit Corporation.

In Federal Court here today, R. W. Chubb, St. Louis attorney, representing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, was permitted to intervene in the receivership proceedings as a friend of the Court. Chubb said the finance corporation had lent more than $5,000,000 to the Frisco Railroad and that he wished to intervene, not as a party, but to bring information to the attention of the Court.

Thomas Kemp sought. Police have been asked to search for Thomas Kemp and his sister, Mrs. Garnett Woods, who, it is believed, are in St. Louis on their way to Billings, Mont. Their father died yesterday at Newport, Ky., their home.

$1 BILL IS RAISED TO $10

A $1 bill altered to resemble $10 was turned over to police last night by Edwin Bleser, 4120W Madison avenue, who said he received the bill in making change for $10 to accommodate a Cheateau avenue dry goods merchant.

The merchant explained that the bill was presented by two Negroes who bought a shirt and socks, receiving $5.50 change. A similar bill, which also had been passed by a Negro, was turned over to police last Wednesday.

ERNEST L. TIBBS' ESTATE

The will of Ernest L. Tibbs, filed today in Probate Court, leaves $20,000 to a niece, Mrs. Iona E. Ruff of Atwater, O., and the rest of his estate, except for $8000 left to six nephews and cousins, to his sister, Mrs. Oia Tibbs Swoboda of Cairo, Ill.

Tibbs, for years manager of the Richard M. Scruggs estate, died Saturday. He made his home with George C. R. Wagner, undertaker, and named him executor of the estate with Byron W. Tibbs, a cousin. Wagner said the value of the estate was not known.

CITY, COUNTY WOMEN ASKED TO MAKE CLOTHES FOR NEEDY

Plans for Sewing of Farm Board Textiles to Be Made at Meeting Tuesday.

Leaders of women's organizations in St. Louis and St. Louis County have been requested by the local chapter of the Red Cross to meet at Hotel Statler Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to discuss plans for the mobilization of hundreds of volunteer workers to make clothing for the needy from the free cloth distributed by the Red Cross.

The cloth represents some of the textiles made from 500,000 bales of farm board cotton released for distribution among the needy. Red Cross chapters and other relief agencies are organizing volunteer workers on a war-time basis to convert the cloth into clothing.

J. Lionberger Davis, acting chairman of the St. Louis chapter wrote that "there is now a most pressing need in St. Louis and St. Louis County for clothing for 10,000 families under the care of relief agencies."

Headquarters will be established at 1700 Olive street.

U. S. DRIFTING TO FASCISM OR DISASTER, THOMAS ASSERTS

Socialist Says Unemployment Is Bred by Private Ownership of Resources.

AKRON, O., Sept. 9.—Private ownership of natural resources was branded as "wasteful, chaotic and planless," by Norman Thomas, Socialist presidential candidate, in an address here last night. It was his second address in Ohio in as many nights.

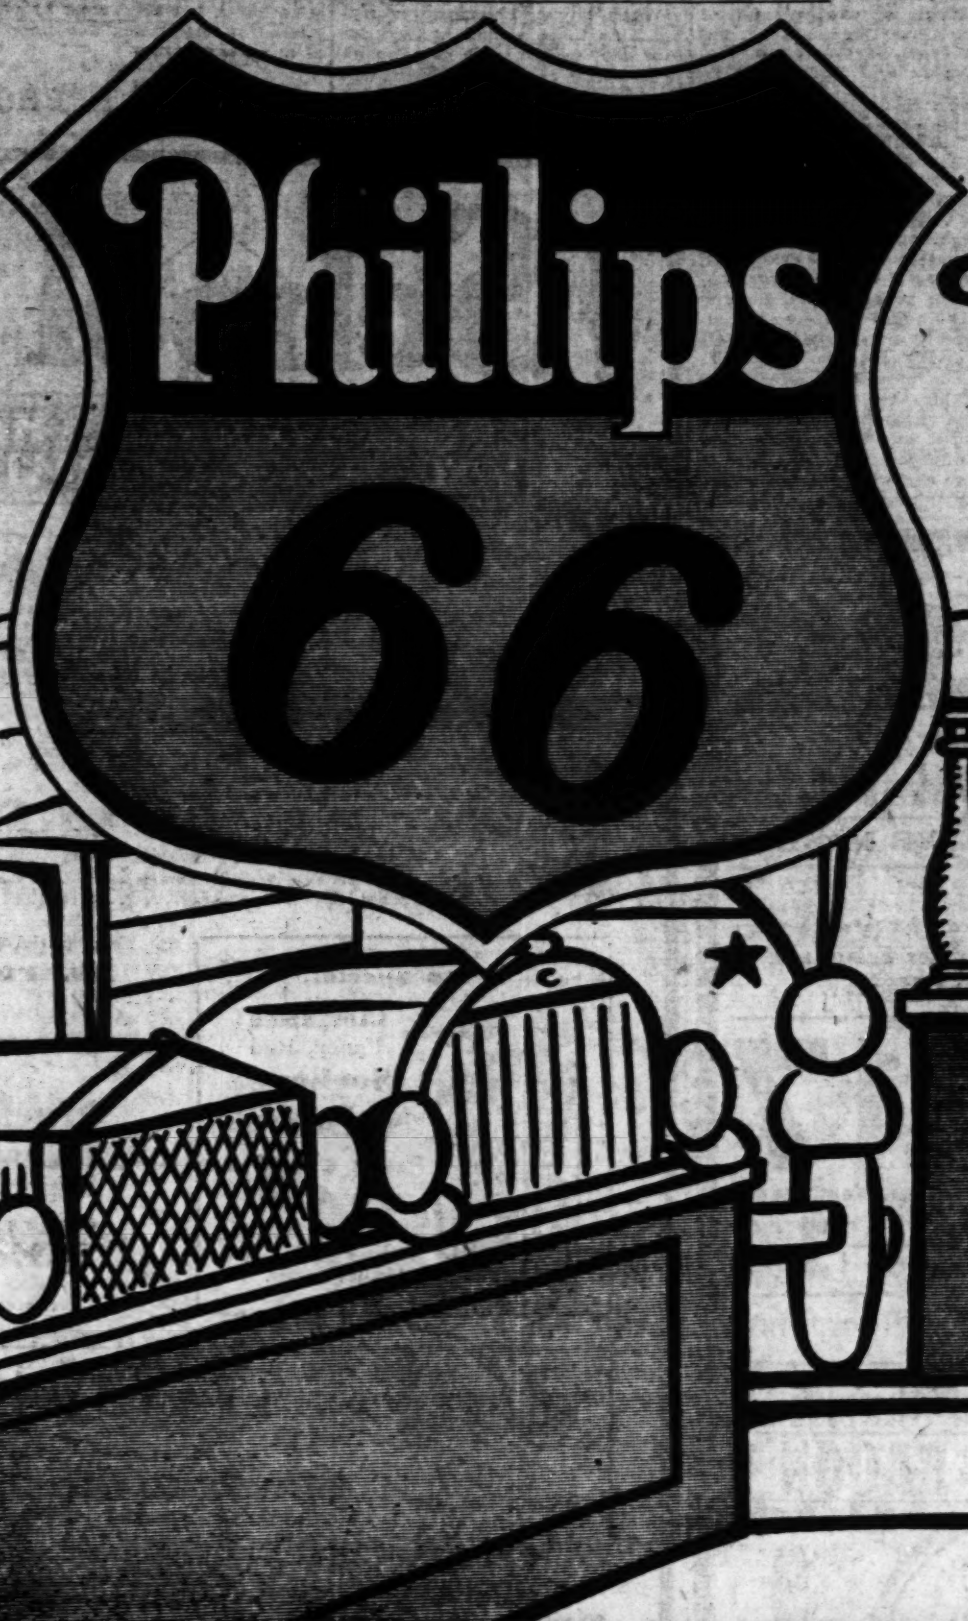

Unemployment and war, he said, are bred on the system of private ownership that allows natural resources to be managed for the profit of absentee owners in an independent world.

The system, he added, "cannot continue. The drift in America is to catastrophe or to Fascism."

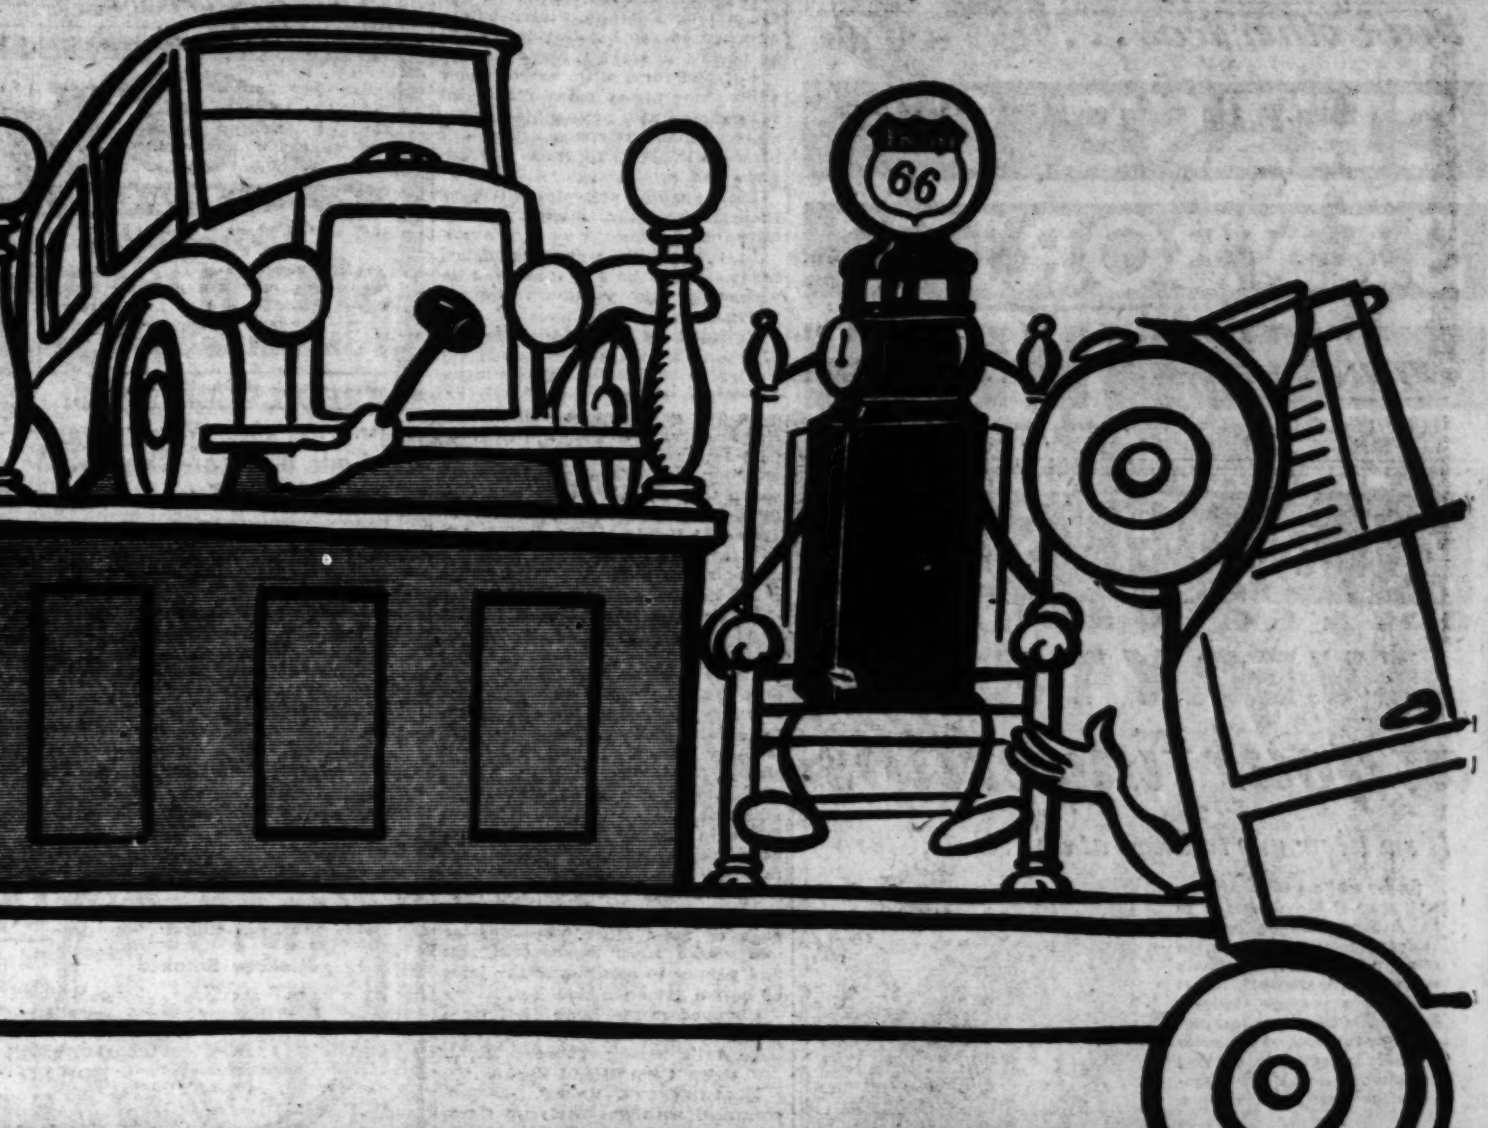

He pointed to Akron's large tire factories as examples of the "amazing intelligence with which production processes are co-ordinated, and asserted "the crime of failure to abolish poverty" must be judged against "this background of intelligence and achievement."

Let your car BE THE JUDGE

"HIGHEST TEST" at the price of ordinary gasoline

"The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth"—that's what you must have, when you are looking for the world's biggest bargain in gasoline.

The advertisements for motor fuels are all right as far as they go. But each one naturally "puts its best foot forward."

Words. Words. Claims. And more words.

In the last analysis, the only fact that counts cannot be printed on paper. The only question that matters is: How much better does your motor run on one gasoline as against another?

To get the answer, let your car be the judge!

Nothing we can say about Phillips 66... the greater gasoline, nothing we can claim for it, means half as much to the intelligent motorist as the improvement which he actually feels in his car.

The first time you Phill-up with Phillips, you get the verdict quickly. Your car is sentenced to faster pick-up, snappier get-away, and quieter operation. Your motor runs sweeter and farther on every gallon.

Why?... Because Phillips 66 is high test. Its gravity now ranges from 63.1° to 67.9°—with CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, which means that this high test is always scientifically matched to your weather.

Does it cost you 3¢ extra per gallon?... No, you can get Phillips 66 for the same price as ordinary low gravity gasoline. Only Phillips can give extra high test without extra cost, because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline.

While your car may be the judge, you actually are the jury. So remember that our claims are backed up by real evidence, that our promise of premium performance is supported by the definite figures which prove that Phillips 66 is honest high test. Remember that more than 7,000,000 skeptical motorists, like yourself, have already made a trial of this outstanding gasoline, and have become loyal users and boosters.

Please expect a real and notable improvement in performance, the first time you try a tankful. Be just as critical of Phillips 66 results as you would be if it cost you 3¢ more per gallon than it does.

You will not be disappointed. That is our sincere and confident conviction. But be sure to stop for that trial tankful at the Orange and Black 66 shield, because that is the way to make sure that you pay nothing extra for extra high test gasoline.

The world's finest oil for your motor 31¢ a quart

RAISIN BREAD

One cup milk or water, two tablespoons shortening, three tablespoons sugar, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one yeast cake, one-fourth cup lukewarm water, one cup seedless raisins, one cup whole wheat flour, about two and one-half cups white flour.

Scald liquid and add shortening, sugar, salt, and cinnamon. Cool until lukewarm. Add the yeast cake which has been softened in lukewarm water, and the raisins. Add whole wheat flour and enough white flour to make a dough which can be handled. Knead until smooth and elastic and let rise. Bake in moderate oven.

Waterproof Table Covers

Have you seen the new, waterproofed damask table square, doilies and runners? These are ideal for general family use, as they may be sponged off and do not stain. Furthermore, they come in lovely shades of green, yellow, etc., to match modern tastes for color.

PLANNING THE MENU; RECIPES FOR THE WEEK

Warning Given Against Too Sudden Changes in Menu-Making

There's always a temptation as cooler days come to make drastic changes in meals with the result that menus are too heavy. There are a long fall and winter before us when energy building foods will be needed to stoke the system.

But just for a little while longer while there are so many fruits and vegetables at reasonable prices, serve as many as you can. This applies particularly to fruits for desserts and salads.

Rich puddings and pies will have their innings for many months later on.

Boiled Beef and Horseradish.
A piece of brisket is a good cut for boiled beef if you like fat meat. Otherwise use a piece of chuck, cross-rib, or bottom round. Short ribs are also good boiled. All these cuts require long and rather slow cooking, but when properly seasoned they are very tasty and economical. Have the meat tied or skewered firmly in shape, sprinkle with salt and pepper and put in a deep saucepan with two large sliced onions, a stalk of celery cut in pieces, two whole cloves, a sprig or two of parsley, a small piece of bayleaf and enough boiling water to half cover the meat. These proportions are for five to six pounds of beef, or enough for two meals for a family of six.

Cover pan closely and cook very slowly for three or four hours. The slower the meat cooks, the better it will be. When done cut down in slices and serve with horseradish sauce. The simplest way to make this is to make a sauce from two tablespoons each of butter and flour, one and one-half cups of meat stock, one-quarter cup grated fresh horseradish, salt and pepper to season and the juice of half a lemon added last.

Chopped roast lamb left from Monday night is used for the cabbage rolls served Tuesday night.

Crisp Corn Beef Sticks.
Mix two cups white water-ground cornmeal with one-half cup flour, one-half teaspoon salt, two teaspoons sugar, three-quarters teaspoon baking soda. Beat one egg and add two cups buttermilk. Stir this into the cornmeal mixture and then add one-third cup melted shortening. If the mixture is too thick add more milk—it should be a little thinner than a cake batter, or should pour in a heavy stream from the spoon.

Pour into well-greased hot cornbread stick pans and bake in a hot oven—425 degrees—for 15 to 20 minutes. Make 18 small sticks. If it is not convenient to use buttermilk, substitute sweet milk and use two teaspoons baking powder instead of the baking soda.

Beef Soup.
Chop fine four medium sized boiled beets, or enough canned beets to make one and one-half cups when chopped. Add the beets to a quart of beef stock and season with a slice of lemon. The stock may be made by adding four beef cubes to four cups boiling water. Simmer beets and stock for 20 to 30 minutes, strain and season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve with a spoonful of grated hard cheese in each portion.

Cheese Sauce.
Melt two tablespoons butter in saucepan, add two tablespoons flour and stir smooth. Add one cup milk slowly, continue to stir until thickened. Season with salt and pepper. Then add three-quarters cup American grated cheese and a few drops of Worcestershire sauce. Stir until cheese is well melted and pour very hot over eggs and spinach.

Sour Cream Dressing.
This is easier to make than a boiled dressing as commercial mayonnaise may be used. Whip half a cup of sour cream and when thickened fold into it half a cup of mayonnaise. Shred cabbage rather fine, chill and pour dressing over it half an hour before serving.

Scrambled Cheese.
Break half a pound cheese and melt in frying pan. Beat two eggs with two tablespoons milk, add to melted cheese and cook like scrambled eggs. Season and serve on hot buttered toast.

CHINESE CHICKEN

If you want chicken that tastes all together different from the usual recipe, try a Chinese way of serving it. Left overs from Sunday's chicken may be used, or one of the excellent brands of canned chicken may be used for this. Drain a No. 3 can of crushed pineapple and cook the fruit for two or three minutes in three tablespoons of butter. Add four tablespoons of butter and cook until thick and smooth.

Then add two cups of diced cooked chicken and one cup of boiling water or chicken stock, one-half cup shredded celery and two tablespoons finely shredded green pepper. Simmer five minutes, season and serve. A garnish of toasted shredded almonds give a pleasant Oriental touch.

Fried Onion Rings.
Cut large white onions, across into slices about 1/4-inch thick. Separate slices into rings. Dip rings into milk, then into flour and fry in deep fat. Drain and salt slightly.

ITS LUNCH BOX, NOT DINNER PAIL NOW

The term "dinner pail" is no longer applied (at least not in the best nourished circles) to a container for a carried lunch, particularly the school lunch. It is now a lunch box. This change in name has come about more from a change in the type of a lunch packed than an alteration in the size or shape of the box.

The old-fashioned name was certainly highly descriptive of the old-fashioned contents of the "pail." They were much more suitable for dinner than for lunch. In fact, the food was often just what had been left over from dinner the night before. The virtues of economizing in winter, and of course, left-over food is good, but in such cases, it was often used without plan and just to fill up space in the pail.

ORANGE CAKE

Nine egg yolks, one and one-half cup sugar, three-fourths cup boiling water, one-fourth teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, two and one-fourth cups cake flour, one teaspoonful orange flavoring.

Beat egg yolks until thick and light. Add sugar and water gradually, beating until sugar is practically dissolved. Fold in flour which has been sifted four times with baking powder and salt. Add flavoring. Bake in slow oven for 20 minutes, and increase the heat for 20 minutes more. Let cool in pan. The egg whites may be used for an angel food cake.

DRESSINGS MAKE OR MAR MANY A SALAD

Vegetable, Fish and Fruit Best if Served With Appropriate Dressings

Here are three dressings planned especially for fruit, fish and vegetable salads. The right dressing is really necessary if the salad is to be a success.

Too often French and mayonnaise dressings are the extent of a woman's accomplishments in this art. They are used indiscriminately and often with poor results.

For Fish Salads.
 One teaspoon dry mustard, one teaspoon water, one cup vegetable oil, one teaspoon sugar, two tablespoons vinegar, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoon paprika.

Mix mustard and water. Add one tablespoonful of oil at a time and beat well with a rotary beater after each addition, until one-half cup of oil has been used. Then add vinegar and seasonings. Beat in remaining oil, two tablespoonfuls
 at a time.

For Fruit Salad.
 One three-ounce package cream cheese, two tablespoons honey or three tablespoons sugar, three-fourths cup vegetable oil, one and one-half tablespoons lemon juice, grated rind of one lemon, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon cayenne.

Beat cheese, honey, lemon juice and seasonings with a rotary beater until smooth. Add one tablespoonful of oil at a time and beat well after each addition, until four tablespoonfuls have been used. Add remaining oil, two tablespoonfuls
 at a time, beating until well blended after each addition. Chill. This recipe is for a creamy dressing, and should not be used if the salad is to be a success.

For Vegetable Salad.
 One teaspoon salt, one teaspoon dry mustard, one teaspoon sugar, one teaspoon paprika, one-fourth teaspoon cayenne, two tablespoons tomato catsup, one cup vegetable oil, one-fourth cup vinegar or lemon juice.

Mix seasonings and catsup together. Beat with rotary beater until thoroughly blended. Add one tablespoonful of oil at a time and beat well after each addition, until six tablespoonfuls have been used.
 Beat in remaining oil, two tablespoonfuls at a time. Gradually beat in the vinegar or lemon juice.
 (Correctly mixed, this dressing will not separate for hours.)

FISH SALADS ARE WELCOME

FRIDAY LUNCHEON SUGGESTIONS

Shrimp.

One can shrimp, French dressing, one small bottle stuffed olives, 15 tiny sweet pickles, six green peppers, two tablespoons pickled white pearl onions, lettuce, mayonnaise, whipped cream.

Drain shrimp, rinse with cold water and remove the viscera. Break in good-sized pieces and dress with French dressing. Chill for two hours, add the olives and pickles sliced and the onions. Hollow out the green peppers to form cups, and stuff with this mixture. Serve garnished with lettuce and mayonnaise diluted with a little sweet or sour cream.

Halibut.

One pound flaked cooked halibut, two cucumbers sliced, one teaspoon chopped parsley, one teaspoon salt, sliced stuffed olives, one bunch radishes sliced, one cup cooked green peas, one-fourth cup French dressing, romaine.

Combine all ingredients, serve on romaine topped with cooked dressing and garnished with the sliced olives.

Crab Meat.

One pound crab meat, four hard cooked eggs, one-half cup almonds, one-half cup cream, one cup mayonnaise, salt, paprika, lettuce, one green pepper or pimiento.

Cut crab meat into large pieces.
 Cut whites of eggs into cubes.
 Blanch almonds, cut into thin lengthwise strips. Whip the cream very stiff, add to the mayonnaise dressing with salt, paprika, and fold into it the other ingredients.
 Serve on a bed of lettuce, sprinkle with strained egg yolks. Garnish with strips of green pepper or pimento.

SANDWICHES OFTEN SOLVE THE PROBLEM OF CHILDREN'S LUNCH

Once school opens we are confronted with the ever present question of school lunches—of course children have to eat lunch every day whether school is open or closed, but during the school season the question seems to be a more troublesome one. Many mothers find it convenient to plan a sandwich meal for home lunch especially during this month of September when warm weather is apt to continue.

Sandwiches with fillings of lettuce, tomatoes, grated raw carrots, cucumbers or mashed lima beans with a bit of crisp bacon or chopped cooked egg or cheese are convenient and nourishing, offer a meal rich in vitamins and minerals.

Serve sandwiches with a chocolate milk, plain or malted milk or a cup of cream soup and add a piece of fruit or a few cookies and you have a meal simple, simple and quickly prepared. Buy a box of straws and there will usually be little difficulty in getting the youngsters to drink the milk when straws are provided with it.

Olive-Nut Salad.

Mix an equal quantity of cream cheese with chopped olives, plain or stuffed, and roll into balls the size of hickory nuts. Roll each in chopped nut meats, English walnuts preferred, arrange three on a lettuce leaf for a portion, and serve with French dressing.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

ADD LITTLE WHITE GRAPES TO BRIDGE CHICKEN SALAD

Four-pound chicken, one cup white seedless grapes, three stalks celery (diced), stuffed olives (sliced), one chopped green pepper, three hard-cooked eggs, one-half onion (grated), French dressing, one-quarter teaspoon paprika,
 one cup whipped cream, Mayonnaise dressing.

Joint chicken and stew until tender with water, onion and seasonings. Remove meat from bones in as large pieces as possible and cut into cubes. Add celery, olives, green pepper and hard-cooked eggs.
 Grate in the onion if desired, and marinate all with French dressing.
 Add paprika and grapes and put away to chill. When ready to serve, add more seasoning if necessary.

Think of it! A single dish of Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice, served with top milk and sugar, gives the same energy value as a baked potato or a lamb chop. And now, in addition, Puffed Grains have been made twice as crisp... twice as good. Serve these super crisp... richly nourishing cereals for breakfast, lunch and supper.

CEREAL SIMPLIFIES BREAKFAST PROBLEMS

It's Easy to Get a Quick, Substantial Meal With These Foods.

Is morning a hurry-up time in your household? Do you rush and scramble to get the children off to school and your husband off to work? If you do, then you'll appreciate the new, quick-cooking cereals that may be cooked in the time it takes you to make coffee or toast.

Quick-cooking oatmeal is one of the most popular of the new, quick-cooking cereals. You just bring the water to a boil, sprinkle in the oatmeal and in about five minutes your steaming, creamy bowl of oatmeal is ready to eat. Of course, you can cook it longer if you wish. Some people prefer the flavor of oat flakes cooked a long time; but there is a growing liking for the nut-sweet taste of the quick oat flakes cooked these few minutes.

What enables oatmeal to cook so quickly? A special process at the mill. Before the cereal came to you the flakes have been roasted, steamed, cut into smaller pieces and flakes. No wonder they cook deliciously done in such a short time. And they are a lifesaver to the woman who wants to start her family off with a good, hot oatmeal breakfast, but who has hitherto thought she did not have time to cook it.

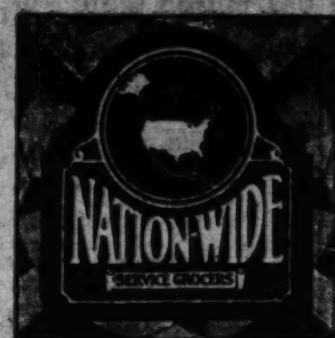

Oatmeal for Economy.
Oatmeal, the great economy food! The food that raised a sturdy race of Scots! The breakfast America goes to work on! Oatmeal offers a rich assortment of body-building foods. There are proteins to rebuild worn-out tissues and nerves. There is iron for good, red blood; and lime for bones. There are vitamins A, B, D and E. And, in addition, there's that good old standby quality that sticks with you until the morning is over, which has always characterized oatmeal. And the cost of all this is very low, indeed.

SPAGHETTI AND CHICKEN LIVERS FOR THE BUFFET SUPPER

One package (one-half pound) spaghetti, three-fourths pound American cheese, two cloves garlic, one large green pepper, five tablespoons canned tomatoes, five tablespoons olive oil, one tablespoon chicken fat or butter, one small bottle catsup, salt, pepper, paprika, large, whole mushrooms.
Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and let cold water run through it. Add cheese grated, garlic and peppers, chopped very fine. Add other ingredients and mix well together. Heat thoroughly. Serve piled lightly on a serving platter and surround with chicken livers, sautéed in butter.

LIMA BEANS AND CHEESE

Two cups cooked lima beans, two to four hard cooked eggs, one can pimiento, one-half onion, one-fourth pound strong cheese, one quart white sauce.
Place half the beans in a buttered baking dish. Add a layer of hard-cooked eggs, sliced, chopped pimiento, onion and grated cheese. Cover with white sauce and repeat, having grated cheese on top. Bake in moderate oven until brown for about 40 minutes.
For white sauce use eight tablespoons butter and eight tablespoons flour to quart of milk.

FIRST OF SEASON'S OYSTERS HAVE COME

Recipes Given to Permit Variety in Serving These Favorites.

The first oysters of the season are in this week, welcome news indeed to many who are fond of the popular bivalves.

Oysters are a good buy because they are cheaper than usual this season. Appetizing, easily digested and contain valuable food properties.

It's unfortunate that in many families oysters just mean oyster stew, when there are other good ways of serving them also. A few suggestions follow:

Oyster Stew.
One pint oysters, one cup thin cream, one cup milk, two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon salt, paprika.

Melt butter in a saucepan. Add oysters, dredge with paprika, and saute until edges of oysters curl.
Heat milk and cream together in double boiler, add oyster mixture and salt. Do not overheat after adding oysters to the milk and always use fresh milk and cream.

Escalloped Oysters.
One pint oysters, half cup melted butter, one and a half cups rolled crackers, two teaspoons salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one and a half cups milk, quarter teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Mix cracker crumbs, melted butter, salt and pepper. Put a layer in the bottom of a baking dish.
Then a layer of oysters—repeat—and top with the buttered crumbs.
Never have more than two layers of oysters so that they will cook evenly. Mix one-quarter teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce with milk and pour over oysters and crumbs in the baking dish. Bake in moderate oven for 45 minutes.

Oysters a la Newburg.
One pint oysters, one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon flour, two hard-cooked egg yolks (mashed fine), two-thirds cup cream, cayenne pepper and salt to taste.

Blend butter, flour and egg yolks. Add cream. Mix with osters. Put in shallow baking dish, cover with butter crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes.

Fried Oysters.
Clean oysters and dry thoroughly. Season with salt and pepper.
Dip in flour, egg and fine bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat (375 degrees F.) Drain on brown paper.
Garnish with parsley and serve with tartar sauce.

Oyster Casserole.
Wrap strip of bacon around each oyster, skewer and broil very slowly until bacon is crisp and brown.
Serve hot on rounds of toasted bread, garnish edge with white of hard-cooked egg, chopped fine.

CRACKER COOKERY

There are ways known to the intimate whereby a crisp, tender pie crust can be made in short time.
Leftovers can be whisked together in a steaming casserole dish, and puddings and desserts can be concocted with little effort.

The magic that does these tricks is crackers—packed and fine bread crumbs that you probably have on the pantry shelf this very minute. The mixing and blending and baking—all the really hard work—is done when you start.

Crumbled crackers soaked in hot milk take the place of white sauce in making croquettes, patties and souffles. Crumbled crackers combined with chopped beef make good beef chops. Crumbled crackers with canned tomatoes make delicate timbales or with a quarter of a pound of cheese and two eggs,
a cheese fondue.

APPLE CELERY DRESSING

Now that chickens are large enough to bake nicely, you will want tasty dressing for them. Vary this from time to time, and if you like celery, try apple and celery dressing.

To make it mix well together the following: Three cups dried breadcrumbs, two tablespoons melted butter, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon thyme, one-half cup tart apples, diced; one cup sliced celery, one-half cup English walnut meats chopped.

Cover raisins with the water, add cloves, and allow to simmer until raisins are tender. Combine the dry ingredients, add to mixture and Noodle Cookery.

Cook noodles in boiling broth or salted water until tender. Pour into colander to drain and let cold water run over them to keep the noodles from sticking together.

YEAST ROLLS

Two cups milk, two yeast cakes, one-fourth cup shortening, two tablespoons sugar, one teaspoon salt, six cups flour.

CHOWDER GOOD FOR COOLER WEATHER MEAL

Little Else Needed When This Substantial Mixture Is Served.

Thick soups and chowders are among our best "fall-in-one-dish" meals and as the weather gets cooler they deserve a prominent place in meal planning. Chowders generally mean mixtures of fish and potatoes flavored with pork and onions. The word probably comes from the French since the Century dictionary tells us that "in the fishing villages of Brittany a caldron is provided in which to cook a mess of fish and biscuits with savory condiments—'faire la chaudière'." This practice was evidently brought to the new world by the French who settled in Canada and in upper New England, for it is in those sections that chowders, as we know them, have their beginnings. Clam chowder is the one that springs to mind whenever the word is mentioned, but there are even various definitions of that, according to the section in which you live or were brought up.

Haddock Chowder. Fillets of haddock are convenient to use for this, though the whole haddock is preferred by real chowder makers. Select a haddock weighing about four pounds, remove the head, split fish and take out bone down the center. Remove skin and put bones, head and skin in a kettle and cover with cold water. Heat to the boiling point and add a diced carrot, a sliced onion, and two teaspoons salt. Boil gently for 45 minutes, then strain. Cut the fish fillets that remain after removing the bones into inch dice. Cut one-half pound fat salt pork in dice and fry until beginning to brown. Add a layer of sliced potatoes, a thin layer of sliced onions and a layer of fish. Repeat until six large potatoes and six onions have been used, as well as all of the fish. Pour in the stock made from the fish bones, adding water if necessary to cover the fish and vegetables.

Sprinkle in two teaspoons salt and boil gently for 20 to 40 minutes. Melt one-quarter cup butter, add one-quarter cup flour and then stir in three cups milk. Stir until boiling, pour into the fish mixture and let boil up once. Serve with hard crackers.

If fish fillets are used, buy two pounds, remove the skin and cut the fish in cubes. Boil the skin and any trimmings with carrot and onion as mentioned for the whole fish trimmings.

Codfish, salmon, flounder or any firm meat fish may be used in the same manner.

Vegetable Chowder. Mixtures of vegetables always including onions and potatoes are made into chowder in the same manner. Use one-quarter to one-half pound fat salt pork to two quarts mixed diced vegetables. Milk is added in the same manner as in making fish chowder. Parsnips, potatoes and onions; potatoes, celery, turnips, carrots and onions; corn, potatoes and onions; potatoes, onions, turnips, tomatoes and lima beans—almost any handy combination may be used.

CREAMED CELERY

Clean outside stalks and white leaves of a head of celery, cut small pieces and cook until tender in three cups water. Scald a slice of onion in two cups milk in a double boiler. Rub celery when soft through sieve.

Blend three tablespoons cornstarch with three tablespoons butter, cook for a few minutes until well blended, gradually add the milk, strained, and the celery, season with celery salt and pepper. Reserve hearts of celery for salad next day.

VALUE OF DESSERTS

Desserts have a real nutritive value and are not always luxuries. The sugar and other fuel foods used—flour, cream, butter—are a necessary part of our food supply; fruit is also valuable; and the pleasant feeling of well-being that an appetizing dessert brings does much to make a meal digestible.

Plan your dessert to blend with the rest of the meal. If fatty or rich foods have made up the main part, do not use a whipped cream dessert; if simple fare is used for the front part of the meal, the ending may be richer.

Toasted Cheese Sandwich. Allow two slices of bread one-fourth inch thick for each sandwich. Butter both slices and between them put thin slices of a soft American cheese. Toast slowly so that the cheese will have time to melt.

Bread Crumbs. When old bread is thoroughly dry, crush with roller pin or run through food chopper (cover mouth of chopper with paper bag, to keep floor clean). Keep crumbs in covered container for "crumbing" fried foods.

Drop Biscuits. Increase the liquid in your usual recipe and drop dough by the spoonful onto a greased baking sheet or into muffin tins—then bake. Much quicker than rolled or cut biscuits.

Lobster Weight. An average sized lobster, weighing about 1 1/2 to 2 pounds will give when cooked 1 1/2 to 2 cups meat. To prepare a live lobster, plunge it into boiling salted water and let cook slowly for 20 minutes.

Apple Butter Custard Tart.

To two eggs, well beaten, add one cup milk, six tablespoons sugar and one cup apple butter. Pour into tart pans lined with pie crust and bake in a moderate oven until crust is delicately brown and the filling firm. Serve with whipped cream.

ORANGE PUDDING

Cover one cup bread crumbs with one pint milk and let stand until milk is absorbed, then add one-half cup sugar, the yolk of one egg, and the grated rind of an orange. Turn into buttered baking dish and bake for one hour in moderate oven.

Remove from oven, turn over pudding the strained juice of one orange, and a meringue made of the egg white beaten with three tablespoons confectioners' sugar. Return to oven to brown the meringue.

AGAIN THE LUNCH BOX AND HOW TO PACK IT

Balanced Food an Important Detail of the Midday Meal.

If the children take their lunches to school, special care must be taken to provide adequate though simple meals. Don't just use up something left over from yesterday's family menus.

We have learned the value of carefully planned meals and it has often been brought to our attention that well packed lunches for the school child are very important.
They should never be altogether composed of foods such as meat, potatoes, cake and pie which are natural components of dinners.

There should be salads, sandwiches, fruits and foods which are light and yet nourishing.

Many a child's afternoon's recitation has been spoiled because he ate heavy food at lunch time which dulled his mind and was conducive to drowsiness. It really is unfair to any child to send him to school with a lunch box which is not well packed.

Packing the Box.

Select a lunch box which can be easily and thoroughly cleaned.

Pack the food carefully. Cover jars with tightly fitting lids and wrap foods to keep them fresh and to prevent one flavor from mixing with another.

Choose a variety of foods and avoid too much repetition. Include one hot dish (if possible) every day in cool weather and occasionally in warm weather. (A thermos container will assure this.)

Be sure to have something from each of the food groups.

YELLOW EGG TOMATOES FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Delicious Preserve From This Variety, Green Mincemeat Also Fine.

As suggested months ago in this Home Economics Section, preserves make a delightful Christmas gift. Little yellow tomatoes, sometimes called egg tomatoes, are delicious in the following preserves. And a spicy mincemeat made of green tomatoes is another unusual treat.

Yellow Tomato Preserves.
Eight pounds yellow tomatoes, two lemons, thinly sliced, with seeds removed; one and one-half quarts water, six pounds sugar and four to six pieces ginger root.

Wash the tomatoes, scald and remove the skins. Cook the lemons for about 30 minutes in one pint of water. Boil together the remaining water and the sugar to make a syrup and add the tomatoes, ginger root and the cooked lemon rind and liquid.
Boil until the tomatoes are somewhat clear, and the syrup thick. Remove the scum, and pour the preserves into hot, sterilized glass jars. Seal and store in a cool, dry place.

Tomato Mincemeat.
Chop 12 green tomatoes, one-half pound seeded raisins and 12 apples. Add two tablespoons cinnamon, one-half cup vinegar, two oranges with rinds chopped fine, one tablespoon cloves, one-half tablespoon ginger, three cups brown sugar, one-half lemon chopped fine, one tablespoon salt, one-half teaspoon allspice and one-half teaspoon nutmeg. Cook until thick, then seal.

FROZEN WHIPPED CREAM IS FLAVORED WITH FIVE FRUITS

One-half teaspoon gelatin, one tablespoon cold water, one-third cup orange juice, one tablespoon lemon juice, one-fourth cup sugar, one cup whipping cream, one-fourth cup chopped candied cherries, one-fourth cup drained crushed pineapple, two tablespoons shredded citron, one teaspoon almost extract.
Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve it over steam. Mix orange and lemon juices and sugar, and add gelatin. Cool until partially thickened and then beat until light and foamy. Combine with cream, whipped until stiff, and add fruit and almond extract. Turn into paper cups and set in a freezing tray, or pour directly into the tray. Let stand until frozen.

LONGS FOR GRAVY LIKE MOTHER USED TO MAKE

Husband Says Wife Fails in Only One Important Detail.

We have a wail from a man who wants "good old fashioned gravy and sauce" with his meat. It's the only complaint he has to make about his wife's cooking, but her gravy is tasteless and "wishy washy," he says.

Meats, fish and poultry certainly do taste better if served with appropriate and well seasoned gravy and sauce. For beef steak nothing is better than brown sauce, plain or with mushrooms. Recipes for these and others follow.

Brown Gravy.

Make brown stock to use for soup and gravy like mother used to make as follows: Cut three pounds of shin of beef in pieces, removing all fat. Add three quarts of water, heat slowly to boiling point, simmer gently for five hours, keeping covered. Remove skum as it forms, and see that meat is always covered with water. Remove meat at end of time, set stock aside to cool, skim fat off and strain liquid through fine sieve.

To make brown gravy, heat four tablespoons of fat, add five tablespoons flour and cook until a little browned, taking care not to burn. Add two cups of the above brown stock slowly, stir all the time, season with salt and pepper and cook until thickened.

Mushroom Brown Gravy.

To brown sauce add one cup fresh mushrooms, cut in slices and sautéed in a little fat, or one-half cup sliced canned mushrooms.
Thicken one and one-half cups of the water in which chicken was boiled with two tablespoons butter, one and one-half tablespoons flour, season with salt and pepper. Have ready one hard boiled egg, chopped, add this to the gravy, and take from the fire. Stir in slowly one well beaten raw egg, and put back on fire for a minute. Take from fire and stir in tablespoon minced parsley, and pour over chicken.

Tomato Sauce.

Heat one and one-half cups tomato juice. Add to its one-half teaspoon onion juice, one tablespoon minced green peppers, salt and pepper to taste, and two tablespoons butter blended with two tablespoons flour. Stir over boiling water until thick. Serve on hot meat loaf.

Caper Gravy.

Blend two tablespoons butter with two of flour in a saucepan. Stir in slowly two cups of brown stock. When smooth add salt and pepper to taste, two tablespoons lemon juice and four tablespoons capers. Particularly good with mutton.

RED CABBAGE WITH SUGAR

One-half onion, two tablespoons fat, one medium head red cabbage, one-fourth cup vinegar, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, salt, pepper, dash cinnamon.
Slice onion and brown it in fat. Add cabbage, shredded, vinegar, water, brown sugar, salt, pepper and cinnamon. Cook slowly until tender.

Grape Juice Sherbet.

Boil two cups sugar with three cups water for 20 minutes, strain and cool. When ready to make the sherbet add two cups grape juice and one cup each lemon juice and orange juice. Freeze, using one part salt, three parts crushed ice, or turn into refrigerator tray.

TOMATO CONSERVE IS FLAVORED WITH APPLE

Recipe for This and India Relish Given by Request.

We are asked for recipes for tomato conserve and India relish, which follow. The conserve is rather unusual as it contains tart apples, and is well worth making a little of before tomatoes are too high.

Tomato Conserve.

Select five pounds firm, ripe tomatoes. Scald, peel and slice. Put in a saucepan with one pound tart apples, peeled, cored, quartered and sliced. Boil slowly for an hour, stirring frequently to break up the fruit. Then add two pounds sugar, the juice of one lemon and the grated rind, and one teaspoon ground ginger. Continue cooking until it is as thick as marmalade, then remove from the fire, let stand for 30 minutes, stir in one-quarter pound coarsely chopped walnut meats and pour into small jars. Seal with melted paraffin.

India Relish.

Chop very fine four quarts green tomatoes, one large white onion and a small head of cabbage. Mix and place in a stone crock and add three-quarters cup salt. Stir to mix and then let stand for 24 hours. Drain off all the juice and discard it. Cover the vegetables with scalding hot vinegar, cover and let stand until cold, then drain off the vinegar.

Remove the seeds from two green peppers and two sweet red peppers and chop the peppers as fine as the rest of the vegetables. Add them to the other vegetables together with two teaspoons black pepper, one teaspoon celery seed and one teaspoon allspice. Cover with fresh vinegar and simmer slowly until the vegetables are tender. Pack in jars and seal. Makes about two quarts.

Children's Desserts.

When making cream pie of any kind, prepare a little extra filling and serve it as pudding to young children for whom pie is too rich.

EVERY WOMAN faces this question

"How do I look to other people? If you have a lovely skin, attractive eyes, and plenty of enthusiasm, you need not worry.

So many women, though, risk their beauty by neglect of constipation. It often causes loss of pep, sallow skins, dull eyes, pimples.

Yet constipation can be overcome by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This cereal provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B which tones the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Special cooking processes make it finer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming.

Surely this is safer than abusing the system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation.

If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

QUICK MEAL MENUS ARE TRUE FRIENDS

Less Than an Hour After Return From Club for This.

On your bridge club afternoon you don't have much time for dinner preparation, so menu suggestions may be in order. And your family won't feel slighted if served this appetizing, though conveniently simple, meal. It takes only about 45 minutes to prepare.

MENU.
Cream of green pea soup.
Cold plate of sliced ham (canned), sliced tomato and pineapple salad, potato chips and sweet pickles.

Ice cream sandwiches.
Hot or iced coffee or tea.
It should not take longer than 15 minutes to get such a meal ready to serve. The soup, for convenience, may be of the canned variety diluted with milk and served in bouillon cups with a garnish of minced parsley. Serve saltine crackers or melba toast with the soup. A hot soup of some sort is the best beginning to a cold-plate dinner, no matter how hot the night.

Canned Ham.
You may have a piece of boiled ham on hand for slicing, but if not, you will find the canned, cooked ham an excellent and inexpensive product. Now that this may be bought in small size cans—hams weighing from two and one-quarter to two and three-quarters pounds—even a small family will not have difficulty in using one up. Chill ham thoroughly, remove from can and cut in thin slices. Arrange on a large platter and surround with cups of lettuce leaves filled with slices of tomato and canned or fresh pineapple. Pass plenty of potato chips, crisped in the oven, with meat. It may be that you do not wish to serve a cold plate—but the ham in thicker slices, saute in a little butter and arrange on a hot platter; saute halves of ripe banana in the fat in the pan and place them around the ham. Serve with lettuce and tomato salad and potato chips or creamed potatoes made from cold cooked potatoes.

Dessert Easily Prepared.
For dessert you may use commercial ice cream and baker's sponge cake or large sugar wafers. Cut slices an inch thick of any preferred flavored ice cream and place between two thin slices of sponge cake or large sugar wafers. Thin crisp ginger or chocolate wafers also make good "holders" for ice cream served in this way.

THIS CHEESE DRESSING MAKES VEGETABLE SALAD SUBSTANTIAL

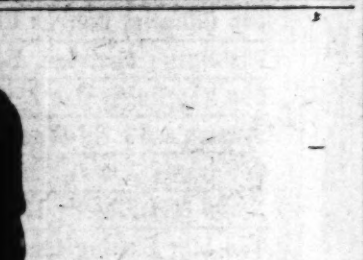

Mix one-half cup grated soft cheese to a smooth paste with one-quarter cup salad oil, then add gradually four tablespoons vinegar, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon prepared mustard, a dash of paprika. Beat with a fork until smooth and about the consistency of thick cream. Add a little more oil if necessary.

Pour over mixed fresh vegetables and serve for luncheon with hot biscuits, apple sauce and cookies.

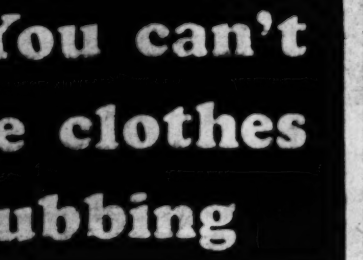

For Sunday SUPPER

Spread hot toast with Underwood's. Top a poached egg on top. There's your ham and eggs—with a delicious new flavor.

Underwood Deviled Ham comes in handy size at popular prices.

FALL RESOLUTION FOR BETTER HOUSEKEEPING

Personal Shopping and Study of Food Values Important to Success.

"I am reorganizing my housekeeping and my resolution for fall work is to put my home on a business basis," said a thoughtful woman the other day.

"No more ordering at haphazard over the phone, and no more last-minute rush to get up hasty, makeshift meals."

"She is starting her reform at a good time for food costs are lower than in a number of years and she will find many others interested in the question of food economy and in acquiring a better knowledge of how to get the most in value for each dollar spent. Not only is this true in regard to food, but also in clothing, shelter, and any of the dozen or so other items that go to make up our living expenses.

In marketing for the family food supply, cost and food value must both be considered, just as in the purchase of clothing we have to weigh the wearing quality and style against price. Knowledge of food values is more difficult for women, to acquire the knowledge of clothing values, or it may be that they have given less time and attention to planning menus than clothes. Yet it is just as important to keep the inner man or woman adequately cared for as the outer.

Important Points.
Personal shopping, buying standard advertised products, and knowledge of market conditions and prices. You will be surprised how much more interesting food becomes as your knowledge of food supplies and local market conditions develops. Your "butcher, baker and candle-stick maker" become real people, not just voices, and you become real to them.

Some knowledge of food values is, of course, necessary if you would shop economically. Price alone is no sure criterion of food value, for the lowest food in cost might well be one of the highest in nutritive value.

Food Substitutions.
Know the relation of one food to another, so that you will know when and how to substitute a low priced food for an expensive one, or for one that happens to be too expensive at a particular time.
When cauliflower costs too much,
use creamed cabbage instead; or shred cabbage in soup and use instead of lettuce in the middle of winter. Evaporated or dried milk may be occasionally substituted for fresh milk at a saving.

Some dried or canned fruits and vegetables are equal to fresh in food value and at certain times of the year are much less expensive.
Take time to study your food supply; take advantage of the agencies that extend helping hands in the way of free distribution of reliable advice in food preparation and you will find you will save money, have better meals and be better nourished.

HEARTY SANDWICHES MEN LIKE FOR SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER

Combine one-quarter cup nuts, one-quarter cup raisins and one-quarter cup dates, chopped finely, green pepper chopped, and one-quarter pound Roquefort cheese into a paste, spread on thin slices of rye bread. Sprinkle with paprika.

Six sardines, three sour pickles, pared mustard, one tablespoon olive oil, two tablespoons vinegar, two hard boiled eggs, salt and pepper.

Chop ingredients fine. Mix to a smooth paste with oil and vinegar.

fore serving, beat with a rotary egg beater until foamy. Makes about one quart.

butter, hot milk, pepper and salt until like a thick cream. Put through pastry tube and around to make attractive little baskets.
Brush these with yolk of egg beaten with milk, and set in oven until brown.

powdered coffee to one cup of coffee cup. Put coffee into boiling water mixing with powdered sugar strained into cups and serve without cream.

black pepper added to it. Fry in hot fat, turning each slice care-

"My wife says WHITE BANNER is the only malt"

There is no need to contend yourself with anything less than the best. New White Banner Malt is within the reach of everyone's purse.

WHITE BANNER
MALT EXTRACT

THE first trial of White Banner brings the realization of a better, finer quality in malt. The second and third tests confirm it. After that, White Banner is the only malt. Make the experiment yourself, and you'll agree. For, White Banner is absolutely pure—made from the choicest barley that nature produces in the world's largest and most modern malt extract factories where nothing else but malt is made. If you like it once you'll like it always, because every pound is exactly the same

SUSTAINS REFUSAL TO RULE ON SCHOOL BOND ELECTION

Missouri Supreme Court Holds Kingsville District Has No Right to Contest.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 9.—The refusal of the Johnson County Circuit Court to assume jurisdiction in an attempt to contest a school bond election was upheld yesterday by Division No. 1 of the Supreme Court.

The court held the Circuit Judge acted properly in sustaining a demurrer filed in behalf of the directors of Consolidated School District No. 7, Kingsville, Judge Ernest Gantt, who wrote the opinion, pointed out that there is no legislative provision for contesting an election of this kind.

The school district voted $15,000 bonds, but Alex Long and other taxpayers of the district contended there was fraud in the election. Long and the others claimed some qualified voters were not allowed to vote, while some unqualified voters were given ballots.

Night to Western Itinerary
—At Topeka Wednesday.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic nominee for President, will stop in Jefferson City for 30 minutes Tuesday night, according to a telegram from Senator Hawes to Mrs. Charles F. Paris, Democratic National Committeewoman.

The telegram from Mrs. Paris was arranged to have Gov. Roosevelt's car stop at Jefferson City Sept. 13 at 9 or 9:30 p. m., definite time fixed later. He can remain only 30 minutes, not long enough for a speech and probably will not have time to make arrangements for delegates to convention (Democratic State convention) to shake hands with him.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Gov. Roosevelt, who is expected to stop already scheduled for his three weeks' campaign trip. They are expected to discuss a Southern trip he plans to make after his return from the West.

By leaving Albany earlier Monday night than the midnight hour now scheduled for his departure, the Governor could be in Jefferson City Tuesday night.

If Roosevelt decides to go to Sacramento, it probably will be early in the afternoon of Sept. 23, on his way from Portland to San Francisco. He is due in San Francisco that night.

Former United States Senator James A. Reed of Missouri visited Gov. Roosevelt at the executive mansion today. Roosevelt tomorrow will talk with United States Senator Claude A. Swanson of Virginia. The meeting may be at Hyde Park if Gov. Roosevelt completes his work here today so that he can go down the river to his country home tonight or tomorrow morning.

Announcement endorsing the presidential candidacy of Gov. Roosevelt and selecting Albany for the State convention Oct. 3 and 4, the New York State Democratic Committee adjourned its meeting today, four minutes after it had been called to order.

The resolution endorsing Gov. Roosevelt was introduced by John F. Curry, Tammany leader, who had stood behind former Gov. Alfred E. Smith during the national Democratic convention in Chicago. It called for "the active and loyal support of the Democracy of the state for the New York Governor."

Midwest Democrats Prepare to Gather at Topeka.
By the Associated Press.
TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 9.—Many Democratic leaders of the Midwest farm belt are expected to attend the rally here next Wednesday at which Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will open his Western campaign for the presidency with a speech on the agricultural situation.

Under arrangements announced yesterday by Gov. Harry H. Woodring, the Democratic nominee will begin his speech (to be broadcast over a radio hookup) at 12:30 p. m. Central standard time. He will speak from a platform on either the north or south steps of the State Capitol. Gov. Woodring will introduce the presidential nominee.

Arrangements are being made for meetings of the Young Democratic Clubs of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas, and of women's Roosevelt clubs, including Gov. Woodring and Senator George McDuffie, will board the Roosevelt train in Kansas City Wednesday morning.

Arriving here at 9:30 a. m., Mr. Roosevelt will remain on his train until 11:30 a. m., when he will be escorted in a parade to the Statehouse.

Upon completion of his speech, Mr. Roosevelt will attend an informal reception at the Governor's mansion. He will appear later in the afternoon at the Kansas fair to extend greetings to the fair crowd.

The presidential nominee and members of his immediate party will be guests of Gov. Woodring and his sister, Mrs. Lida Woodring, at a dinner in the executive mansion in the evening.

James Roosevelt, son of the Governor, will be a speaker at the evening meeting of the Young Democrats' Clubs. The Governor's daughter, Mrs. Curtis Dall, and Mrs. James Roosevelt will speak at the women's Roosevelt clubs' luncheon.

Among out-of-State Democratic leaders who have notified Gov. Woodring they will be here for the rally are: James A. Reed, former United States Senator from Missouri; Bennett A. Clark, Missouri senatorial nominee; Scott Ferris, Oklahoma national committeeman; James A. Hays, Kansas City; Russell Dearmont of Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Charles M. Hay, St. Louis; Charles M. Howell, Kansas City; William H. Ritchie, Omaha; and G. M. Hitchcock, Omaha. Gov. Woodring and his sister, Mrs. Lida Woodring, will be invited to sit on the Roosevelt platform.

TO CONSIDER DRY PARTY PLAN
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The prohibition board of strategy will meet here tonight with a proposal before it that a third party be organized and a dry presidential candidate placed in the field in this year's election.

The proposition has been laid before the individual members of the board in a letter by Canon William S. Chase of New York suggesting that either Senator Borah of Idaho or Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania be offered the united support of all dry organizations in the country.

NORTH CAROLINA U'S
LIBERALISM ATTACKED300 Citizens Petition Governor to Halt 'Communist' Trend, Oust 'Undesirables.'

By the Associated Press.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 8.—Gov. Gardner yesterday was petitioned by 300 citizens to "take the initiative" and "in heaven's name save our State from further predatory acts by those so-called educators against things of the spirit." The petition alleged anti-religious and Communist teachings and the State's educational institutions.

The plea was signed by representative Mayors of the State, including Mayor Charles Lambeth of Charlotte, by leading churchmen and ministers headed by Bishop J. Kenneth Probst of Winston-Salem, head of the Southern province of the Moravian Church; by newspaper men, among whom was Col. Wade H. Harris, editor of the Charlotte Observer; by business men, including J. B. Efrid and W. H. Bell; county officials and others.

Refers Petition to Trustees.

Gov. Gardner received the petition, refused to "take the initiative" and said he likely would lay it before the executive committee of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina, which was one of the institutions scored by the eight-page brochure.

Dr. Fred Graham, president of the university, likewise was silent on the matter. He said "I presume the matter will be placed before the board of trustees."

Condemning the type of speakers who have appeared at institutions of learning in the State, the petition assailed utterances of Bertrand Russell, philosopher, and Langston Hughes, Negro poet. Publications at the university, long heralded as the center of liberalism among colleges and universities, were pointed to as "straws that show whether the wind is blowing—toward Moscow—and whence it is coming—the class rooms of the university."

Wants Undesirables Removed.

The petition called on Gov. Gardner to oust the "undesirables" at our tax-supported institutions of learning.

"We are not attacking North Carolina College for Women and the university," it said. "On the contrary, we are rallying to the defense thereof to prevent further injury by the enemy by those now attending or who may hereafter attend."

The petition was presented by L. A. Tatum of Belmont, who also read a 12-page supplementary statement which he filed with the petition. The statement dealt particularly with alleged teachings of "undue" at the university, and named Prof. English Bagby, whose psychology department was one of the offenders.

Dr. G. I. Adams, Geologist, Dies.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Sept. 8.—Dr. George I. Adams, 61 years old, head of the geology department at the University of Alabama, died at a hospital here yesterday of heart disease and a kidney ailment. A native of Illinois, Dr. Adams had been a member of the university faculty since 1920.

Chairman Payne Expects Greatest Activity Since War—Appeals for Members.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Chairman John Barton Payne of the Red Cross said yesterday the organization was facing the busiest winter since the World War.

In charge of Federal flour and cotton clothing distribution, as well as its own activities of making seed gifts and direct relief in many channels, the Red Cross is recruiting both financial resources and a large corps of volunteer workers.

Never was it more important, Chairman Payne said, for the people of the United States to respond to the annual Red Cross roll call membership rally, which opens Armistice day and closes Thanksgiving day.

Payne predicted that with wise use of the present supply of flour would last the coming winter. Only yesterday, he said, he called for the last 5,000,000 bushels of the first 40,000,000 bushels of Government-owned wheat voted by Congress for feeding the distressed.

"That leaves us the entire 45,000,000 bushels voted in the second wheat bill to take care of the needs of the coming winter," he said.

With volunteer women garment-workers reducing the cotton clothing distribution costs to the actual expense of purchasing the yard goods, the Red Cross executive added, the 500,000 bales of Federal-owned cotton will have maximum effect in meeting the emergency.

In distributing the cotton and flour, he said, the Red Cross could feed a half million dollars of its own funds.

In addition, the organization has given relief, up to the present, to 90,000 mining families in 148 counties, at a total cost of $52,000.

It has distributed 350,000 four-pound packages of garden seeds, each package intended to plant one-fourth of an acre of ground.

A total of 233,000 tons of stock feed was given to 184,000 owners in Middle and Far Western states.

The 53,000 families suffering from the 1921 drought in North and South Dakota, Montana, Nebraska, Iowa, and Washington were cared for by the Red Cross during the past winter.

COOLIDGE LISTS BOOKS THAT INFLUENCED HIM

Ethan Allen His Boyhood Hero—It Took Age to Appreciate Washington.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Calvin Coolidge has made public a list of the books he read when a boy that had the most influence in his life.

In October Commonwealth says that on the new bookshelves he built when he enlarged his home in Vermont, a special place was reserved for these old books. The list as it appears in his article, "Books of My Boyhood," follows:

"The Rangers; or, The Tory's Daughter." The Green Mountain Boys. Washington and His Generals. Men of Our Times.

Biography of President Garfield. Livingstone Lost and Found. Hilliard's Sixth Reader. Choice Poems and Lyrics.

History of the Indian Wars. Young People's Bible History. The New Testament. Life and State Papers of Lincoln.

Orations of Cicero.

While the life of Washington appears in the list, Coolidge says that "the character of the Father of his Country did not impress me greatly at that time. He was too great, too wise, too noble, too involved in those dramatic difficulties which appeal to youth. It takes maturity to comprehend Washington."

"But the gallant Gen. Montgomery, who fell charging the walls of Quebec, Arnold leading a starving army across Maine to invade Canada, Marion the elusive swamp fox of the South, Putnam hunting wolves and chasing the enemy by riding his horse down a long flight of steps, young Lafayette the aristocrat fighting for equality, and especially John Paul Jones, daring to flout the mistress of the seas almost in her home ports, became sufficiently real to give meaning to the flintlock guns with powder-horns, bayonets, and knapsacks, which hung in the chamber of the farmhouse."

Coolidge suspects that when his father bought him a biography of President Garfield, he was aware of the hardships of Garfield's youth and was trying to teach him the lesson that hard work was good for a boy.

His first knowledge of Lincoln came through Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Men of Our Times."

The hero who most appealed to him was Ethan Allen, "rash of action, sententious and picturesque of speech, soldier of fortune, sometimes defeated, but usually victorious, always the strong and courageous patriot."

Coolidge has a good word to say for one of the old-fashioned school books, "Hilliard's Sixth Reader." "No one," he says, "ever suggested to me in those days that much of the best that there is in the literature of our language could be found in books arranged for school children. Perhaps that did not matter much. If we read something in our youth that is really good it comes back to us in later years when we can place a proper estimate on it."

SEEING U. S. IN CANOE
AND ON MOTORCYCLETwo Youths Even Walk a Little on Journey of 10,000 Miles.

By the Associated Press.

Two St. Louis young men are nearing the end of a 10,000-mile journey in the United States and Mexico by canoe, on motorcycle and afoot.

Larry Jones, 21-year-old son of C. Norman Jones, 4638 Pershing avenue, and Edwin Schuster Jr., 19-year-old son of Dr. Edwin Schuster, a physician, 4610 Pershing avenue, are in Mobile, Ala., to reclaim their motorcycle left there for repairs several weeks ago. Then they plan to return home, their parents have been informed.

The trip, partly a job-finding one, thus far unsuccessful, began July 2, when the two friends started from St. Louis to New York City on a motorcycle. Then they rode to Jacksonville, Fla., where they attempted unsuccessfully to obtain work on a trans-Atlantic steamer. So they set out for the Olympic Games at Los Angeles, but at Mobile their machine developed motor trouble. They left it to be repaired and went to New Orleans in freight trains.

From New Orleans they made their way to Juarez, Mexico, and then arrived in Los Angeles in time for the games. They walked and rode to the State of Washington, then turned homeward, passing through Reno, Nev., and getting home about five weeks after their departure.

They bought a canoe for $6, painted it, outfitted it with camping equipment and headed down the Mississippi River for New Orleans. There they sold their motor for $10 and made their way to Mobile and their motorcycle.

Schlauer is a former student at John Burroughs School, while Jones attended Washington University last year.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL SPEAKS

Louis C. Frith Wants All Transportation Regulated.

Louis C. Frith, operating vice president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, spoke yesterday at a luncheon meeting of the St. Louis Rotary Club, outlining factors affecting the railroads at the present time.

Frith said that while there is a surplus of transportation mediums the railroads are regulated to the point of strangulation, while other forms of transportation are permitted to operate with practically no regulation. The solution of the railroads' problem, he said, lies in the "proper and reasonable regulation of all forms of transportation."

TENOR AND FASCISTS MAKE UP

Laure-Volpi, Who Was Rebuked, Now Accepted in Italy.

ROME, Sept. 8.—Giacomo Lauri-Volpi, Metropolitan Opera tenor, has made peace with the Fascists and will appear this winter in Rome and at La Scala in Milan.

A year ago Fascist officials rebuked him for what they said were fantastic demands. Booked for a series of performances, he asked for $1300 a performance, exempt from all taxes, demanded that his name be printed in big letters as "the most complete tenor of the International Theatre," and wanted right to select his own programs.

The Fascist corporation which was promoting the tour turned down the contract, describing his demands as "showing to what point the mentality of one of the great lyric artists had been degraded."

The mounting death rate from travel accidents proves that everyone isn't "lucky." Some day—any day—YOU might be numbered among those who do not escape.

This low-cost insurance pays substantial cash indemnities for death or serious accident in travel and pedestrian accidents named in the policy. Monthly indemnities and hospital benefits are also provided for specified disabilities.

engineers is studying many projects which would supply thousands of jobs. Gardner Cowles Sr., spokesman for the board of directors, and Allee Pomeroy, chairman of the board, yesterday emphasized the stand of the corporation that the first consideration in making loans would be creation of jobs and as many of them as possible.

Harvey C. Couch, another director, has been looking after organization of the self-liquidating section.

Cowles announced that the board of engineers had approved plans for the Los Angeles metropolitan water district to pipe water from the Colorado River above Hoover dam. The district has asked for a loan of $46,000,000 to finance the first two years' work on the project, which eventually will cost $226,000,000, take about eight years to complete and furnish employment for many thousands of men.

The corporation's experts have not yet completed examination of the financial aspect of this project.

Although this section is just getting under way, Cowles said, the board of engineers, judging from projects already proposed, did not think the entire $1,500,000,000 set aside for this purpose would be needed. He said if the money were handed out without regard for financial soundness of proposed projects all of it doubtless could be used, but that some of the proposals were mere in the form of suggestions than applications. About 200 actual applications are now in the hands of the corporation.

Another feature emphasized in the loan creation clause, Cowles pointed out that insofar as the corporation is advised, New York is the only State in which this plan could be operated at present. The law requires that organizations obtaining loan creation loans shall be regulated by the State. Such a law was defeated in the last Pennsylvania Legislature and several other states are understood to be contemplating the enactment of housing laws.

Public Buildings Program.

Formal announcement of the huge public buildings program provided in the Garner-Wagner relief act will be made by President Hoover within a few days.

Treasury officials are busy completing details of the program, slashed from $100,000,000 to $50,000,000 under Comptroller-General

McCart's interpretation of the emergency act. However, they considered yesterday asking for a new decision to permit the use of the entire amount by cutting only the limit of cost on individual projects by 10 per cent, permitting the money saved to go toward other works.

At the Comptroller's office it was said reconsideration of the decision probably would be given in view of the Treasury's opinion that Congress intended the entire $100,000,000 to be expended to increase employment.

Secretary Mills said announcement of the detailed program rested with President Hoover. He declined to say whether he had certified to the President that the undertaking was too large for the Treasury at this time. This is an alternative allowed him by the relief act.

While McCart's ruling applied only to the $100,000,000 public building program, Mills said he was advised that the same ruling would apply for the entire $322,000,000 public works section of the relief act. This would slash $32,200,000 off the building roads, flood control and other projects included in the whole program.

GALES CAUSE DAMAGE, DELAY ATLANTIC COAST SHIPPING

Storm From Bahamas Piles Up Pleasure and Fishing Craft Along Bay State Shore.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Winds originating in a tropical disturbance whose center struck in North Abaco Island of the Bahamas Monday, moved northeastward through the Atlantic last night. Edges of the storm hit the New England coast yesterday. The winds roared across the Bahamas at 80 miles an

A 40-mile wind piled up scores of pleasure craft on the beaches of Massachusetts' south shore, and Cape Cod and shell fishermen's thousands of dollars as scallops were thrown up on the beaches and lobster cars were torn from their moorings.

The Coast Guard station at Cranham on Cape Cod reported a wind velocity of 65 miles. Beach cottages were in danger of being swept away in many towns during the height of the gale.

The Canadian National steamship Prince Henry wrecked as she drove off Cape Hatteras in a 50-mile wind but was in no danger. The Prince Henry was due in Boston today with 122 passengers. The Lady Hawkins made Boston from Bermuda with a load of peacock passengers after encountering a 70-mile wind off Nantucket. The Lady Nelson came into Boston from Halifax, N. S., and left for Bermuda after her lines had been snapped and her gangway broken. Today the gale is subsiding along the Massachusetts coast, passing swiftly out to sea to the northeastward.

Curfew Rings at Fond du Lac.

By the Associated Press.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 9.—The municipal curfew rang last night for the first time in many months. Mayor George Watson ordered the enforcement of the curfew ordinance after Police Commissioner J. J. Gough reported having seen a 15-year-old boy passing the moonshine whiskey and cigarettes to his playmate late in the evening.

CHAPTER FOUR.

CONTENTMENT made him more than ordinarily loquacious, as he sat there, a burly, jovial figure at the head of his own table, with Sam, the white-jacketed Negro steward, in attendance and Monsieur de Bernis' servant lending him assistance. A feast was spread that evening. There was fresh meat and turtle and vegetables taken aboard that day, and the roasted flesh of a great albino that Monsieur de Bernis had caught in the course of the afternoon; and in honor of what to him was a great occasion, Capt. Bransome regaled them with a sweet Peruvian wine which his own rude taste accounted very choice.

In this wine Monsieur de Bernis pledged his safe return and many happy years in the boom of that family of which so far the Captain had seen so little.

"Seems queer," the Captain said, "that a man should scarcely know his own children. Unnatural. There's four fine lads well-nigh grown to manhood, and all but strangers to me for the past. Ay, and to that sweet patient woman o' mine who waits at Babbicombe. I'll be beside her now to show her that the years I've been away hasn't been wasted. And this last voyage o' mine'll prove the most prosperous of all. There's a mort o' money in them hides when we comes to market them at home. Old Lafarche has served me well this trip."

The mention of the old French trader shifted the current of his thoughts. He looked at Monsieur de Bernis, who sat alone on one side of the board, his back to the light, opposite the Major and the lady who were side by side on the master's right.

"Queer, your meeting the old buccaner again like that, by chance, after all these years. And queer, too, that I should not have remembered who ye were, for all that your name was kind of familiar, until old Lafarche reminded me."

"Yes," de Bernis quietly agreed. "Life is a matter of queer chances. It made me feel old to meet him and to see into what he has grown. That's the result of beginning life whilst most men are still at school."

THE Major had pricked up his ears. Here were two men who knew facts. Facts to be investigated.

"Dye say that French trader was once a buccaner?"

It was de Bernis who answered him. "Faith, we were little better than at Santa Catalina. And after that we sailed with Morgan."

"With Morgan?" The Major could hardly believe his ears. "Dye mean Henry Morgan?"

"Sir Henry Morgan. Yes. He was once Governor of Jamaica."

"But..." The Major paused, frowning. "Dye say that you, too, sailed with him? With Morgan?"

Monsieur de Bernis did not seem to remark the incredulity in the other's voice. He answered simply and naturally.

"Why, yes. And I marched with him, too. I was at Porto Bello with him, and at Panama. At Panama I was in command of the French contingent of his forces. We took a proud vengeance then for the blood that was shed at Santa Catalina."

Miss Priscilla looked brightly alert and eager. Without knowledge of West Indian affairs to perceive the implications that had shocked the Major, she was aware only that here was another story of brave doings, and hoped that Monsieur de Bernis would be induced to tell it. But the Major's face was blank and seemed to have lost some of its high color. He reflected with satisfaction upon his own shrewdness which had discerned this man's true quality under his airs and graces, his swaggering gallantry and his troubadour airs. In dubbing him an adventurer he had erred on the side of charity.

There fell a long pause, during which Monsieur de Bernis helped himself to a slab of guava cheese, and poured himself another cup of the Peruvian wine. He was setting down the aquat bottle when at last the Major exploded.

"So that ye're just... just a damned pirate! A damned pirate! And, stab me, ye've the effrontery to confess it!"

Miss Priscilla and the Captain cried out upon him simultaneously in alarm.

"Bart!" ejaculated the lady. "Major Sands, sir!" exclaimed the Captain.

Condemnation was in the voice of each. But Monsieur de Bernis showed no resentment. He smiled upon their dismay and waved a long fine hand to pacify them.

"A pirate? No, no. A filibuster. Please. A buccaner. The Major curled his heavy lip. "And the difference?"

"The difference? Oh, but all the difference in the world."

CAPT. BRANSOME came to be put down. "Ye know very well that was but setting a thief to catch a thief. You may sing the praises of your buccaners ever so eloquently, sir. But you know they had become such a pest that to deliver the seas of them your friend Henry Morgan was bribed with knighthood and a King's commission to turn upon his old associates."

Monsieur de Bernis shrugged, and sank back into his chair, quietly sipping his wine. His manner, faintly contemptuous, showed that he withdrew from the discussion.

SYNOPSIS.

IN 1800, following the death of Sir John Horwade, Captain-General of the Leeward Isles, his beautiful daughter, Priscilla, leaves for England aboard the "Gentle," accompanied by the pompous, middle-aged Major Sands, her father's aide, who seeks Priscilla's hand and fortune. The Major resents Priscilla's interest in their fellow-passenger, Charles de Bernis, fascinating and mysterious Frenchman, and seeks in vain to dissuade her. He finally consents to disembark at Guadeloupe, but Captain Bransome refuses to go to that pirate-infested port and offers to drop him at Sainte Croix. This is the "Gentle," captain's last voyage; he is looking forward to retirement and reunion with his family.

doing it as I'll swear none others could have done it. You would not expect Major Sands, had you crossed Darien with us."

He was launched upon reminiscences. He began to tell them of that incredibly arduous journey made partly on foot and partly by water on the Chagres River. He described the hardships they had confronted and overcome; how for eight days they had gone without food, save an occasional evil-tasting musk-flavored alligator's egg; how they had been constrained to eat strips of hide, consuming even their own belts to cheat their famished stomachs; and how it was in a spent condition that at last they had staggered into sight of Panama, which, forewarned, had mobilized to receive them, with guns and horses, outnumbering them in men by three to one.

The Spaniards had only driven in their cattle to the savannah where we lay the night before the battle, starvation must have made us an easy prey to them. I should not now be telling you of these things. But the cattle were there, the steers and horses, and we took and killed what we required, and ate the flesh almost raw. And so, by the grace of God, it is "hash-pheny, sir."

"Of thieving rogues? To be sure, I am. I call a thing by its proper name. Ye can throw no glamour over the sack of Panama, sir. With whatever arts you tell the tale of it, it remains a thieving raid, and the men who took part in it—Morgan and his cut-throats—were just bloodthirsty, thieving scoundrels."

Before such direct offensiveness Capt. Bransome became deeply alarmed. Whatever Monsieur de Bernis might be today, it was certain that since once he had followed the trade of a buccaner, there must be wild blood in him. If it were roused, there might be mischief done; and he wanted none of that aboard the Centaur. He was considering intervention, when the Frenchman, who, whatever he may have felt, still betrayed no outward sign of irritation, forestalled him.

"By my faith, Major, do you realize that what you say is almost treason? It is a reproach to your King, who does not share your so sensitive honesty. For if he regarded Henry Morgan as a deserter, he would never have raised him to the dignity of knight-hood and made him Governor of Jamaica."

"And that's the fact," Capt. Bransome supported him, hoping to curb the Major's rashness. "And ye should also be told that Monsieur de Bernis here holds the appointment of Sir Henry Morgan's lieutenant, to help him keep order upon the seas."

Contradiction came not from the Major, but from Monsieur de Bernis himself.

"Ah, but that is over now. I have resigned my post. Like yourself, Captain, I am going home to enjoy the rest I have earned."

"No matter for that. The fact that ye held the post, held the King's commission in spite of Panama and Porto Bello and the rest, should be answer enough for Mal Sands."

But Maj. Sands was not to be put down. "Ye know very well that was but setting a thief to catch a thief. You may sing the praises of your buccaners ever so eloquently, sir. But you know they had become such a pest that to deliver the seas of them your friend Henry Morgan was bribed with knighthood and a King's commission to turn upon his old associates."

Brilliant Colors for Fall

The new fashions are using brilliant colors in profusion, and although black is the most popular shade it is enlivened by gay notes that keep it from being somber.

THE fall forecast for fashions shows anything but a somber atmosphere, although the basins of the new wardrobe is decidedly black. Clothes are using all sorts of brilliant touches, and plenty of frocks and suits are having whole treatments of gay material.

Black is the most popular shade. Not a dull, lifeless black, but a vibrant, interesting one that makes a perfect foil for the color which it displays. Browns, that are warm and sparkling, are in high favor, too. A whole frock or suit of green or red may be worn with perfect assurance that you aren't too dazzling.

The four women who are standing in a dressed-up row in the large illustration, just as though they know that all eyes are on them, are ready for anybody's scrutiny.

The girl at the left is wearing a green frock of crepe Morocco, whose brilliance is heightened by an occasional touch of vivid blue. Two of the three glass buttons on the bodice are in blue. The belt, which is warm and sparkling, are in high favor, too. A whole frock or suit of green or red may be worn with perfect assurance that you aren't too dazzling.

The cowl neckline, which is high, swings over the shoulder in a point, where it is held by a green button. The green end of the belt is fastened by a blue button, and the blue end by a green button.

THE coat with the huge stand-off collars chooses green as its color also. The material is a soft, new woolen. Both the collar and the triangular pieces of fur that extend from the shoulder to a point under the arms are of blue fox. The sleeves are a modified leg-o-mutton, with full puffs above the elbow, and a close-fitting line below.

PANANESE TAKE POSTER PICTURES FOR U. S. WAR PLOT

Inspect Advertising Photos Mark Targets for Air Bombers — Patriotic Societies Excited.

EMBASSADOR GREW REQUESTS INQUIRY

Newspapers Carry Pages of Protests and Items About Allegedly Hostile Moves by America.

By the Associated Press. TOKIO, Sept. 10.—The photographing of several Japanese business and industrial buildings by National City Bank of New York has brought on diplomatic applications.

Delegations from Japanese patriotic societies visited the branch bank at Osaka and attempted to intimidate its Japanese employees. Osaka newspapers carried pages of protests against the photographs and printed reports hinting that the United States was making preparations for war.

United States Ambassador Joseph Grew immediately arranged for an interview with Count Uchida, Foreign Minister, and called on him the Foreign Office this afternoon.

He asked Count Uchida to make a thorough investigation and Count Uchida replied that an investigation was already under way.

The newspaper charges, which included a long list of American activities, such as the presence of a United States fleet in the Pacific, an alleged cruise of three airplane carriers along the Kurile Islands, and establishment of new American air bases on the Aleutian Islands, were broadcast over the semi-official radio station at Osaka.

He charged that the bank's photographs might get into the hands of the United States War Department or be used in mapping targets for air bombing raids were reiterated.

The newspaper Kokumin Shimun, which led the criticism, said there were many "manifestations of serious intentions of America against Japan."

An American woman, whose name was not given, said a mysterious visit to the Kurile Islands a month ago, the newspaper said, and added that many American airplanes "which cannot be considered purely commercial," are established in the Aleutian Islands.

Another prominently published report was that Americans were sending many bombing planes to Hangchow, China, to assist the Chinese army in establishing an air base. Shanghai dispatches last month told of a group of American flyers under Col. John L. Jouett, formerly of the United States Army, serving as flying instructors at Hangchow.

Earlier in the day, the United States Embassy asked the Japanese Government to issue a statement negating the National City Bank and to declare that thorough investigation showed the charges to be utterly unfounded, but the government did not immediately accede to the request.

Officers of the bank here explained that the photographs, which were taken in accordance with instructions from the bank in New York, were to be used in promotion matter illustrating business and industrial developments in the Far East.

U. S. Ambassador's Report on His Representations to Japan. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew at Tokyo advised the State Department today that he had asked Count Uchida, Foreign Minister, to make a full investigation of press attacks on the National City Bank, which has a branch in Osaka, and that steps can be taken to stop them.

Grew said Count Uchida assured him an investigation was already under way and that when a report was received he would give it full consideration.

The text of Grew's message: "The recent affair of the Osaka branch of the National City Bank of New York which is subjected to a current press campaign charged by the bank with photographic espionage has assumed proportions which threaten to cause serious injury to the bank's prestige and business, if not to its personnel and property. Grew therefore called on the Minister of Foreign Affairs this afternoon and laid the matter before him, asking that full investigation be made."
